Another in the series of beautiful homes that make Pottstown warm

Small touches add up to a big effect at this home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Ludwig at 738 North Hanover street (south of Gay street). The house was finished 13 months ago by L. Ernest Pickard, Pottstown contractor Mrs. Pickard has added several little touches herself. She made the flamingo standing out front, jig-sawing plywood and making its legs of curtain rods. She also painted the cement porch floors in the front and at right blue. Special features of the house include the fact that the basement is on a level with the backyard, eliminating step-climbing on washdays, and the sliding doors for closets. On the one floor are three bedrooms and bath, kitchen, dinette and living room (left), which is 15 by 15 feet. Above them is a small storage area. Ludwig is a draftsman for Wolko Engineering incorporated, 304 King street. That's Mrs. Ludwig out front with their daughter, Penny Lynn 1½ years old.

3d Grade Pupils Study Indian Lore With Papoose Cradle and Totem Pole

By RUTH M. HENRY

Brightly painted head dresses and Indian scenes bring to the minds of the children in grade 3C of the Lower Pottsgrove schools the habits and customs of the Indians.

A papoose cradle on display is made of white buck skin trimmed with bead work and the traditional good luck charm—the rabbit's foot.

The significance of the totem pole was taught by the use of a 7-foot model whose symbols were explained to the children.

Geodes, rounded, hollow aggregates of mineral containing reddish soil, were exhibited. The children were shown how the Indians opened them and mixed the clay contents with water to make war paint.

THE LENAPES, a friendly tribe of Indians that roamed the hills about Pottstown were represented in the display and study by a tomahawk which was found on Rahn Hill. Several arrow heads, an Indian hammer, beaded moccasins, purses and a mortar and pestle were also studied.

Indian headaddresses were painted and the art of weaving was demonstrated to the children as they wove hot pads in bright colors. Indian figures, cast in plaster of paris, were

Motorist Loses Life On West Virginia Road

CLENDENIN, W. Va., Nov. 27 (AP)—A York, Pa., motorist lost his life today on a West Virginia highway after his auto collided with another car, careened into a house and came to rest against a tree.

Killed was Paul Richards, 28, State Trooper J. A. Woodley said he believed Richards went to sleep at the wheel.

Seriously injured was the driver of the other car, John D. Walker, 49 of Clendenin. He suffered a broken neck and skull injuries.

Pupils Study State, Resources in Class

By DAWN BRENDLINGER

In social studies, we studied about Pennsylvania.

We have committees. We picked certain people to be on each committee. In some of the committees they made dolls and in others they brought products such as iron, steel, and oil. The main product is coal.

We made booklets of what we learned in our committees.

The only United States president from Pennsylvania was James Buchanan.

The Pennsylvania State bird is the ruffed grouse.

Choice of Prisoners Is to Leave Jail Early

HOUSTON, Nov. 26 (AP)—City prisoners whose time was up on Thanksgiving Day were given a choice. They could leave early today or eat turkey at the farm.

Thirty-six out of 40 gave the bird to the bird and chose the crisp winter air of free men.

Magazine Has Article About Supersonic Plane

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 (AP)—The Air Force association said today America's first supersonic delta-wing fighter, the F-102, may be the "final stage in piloted interception before the guided missile takes over completely."

The association's magazine, Air Force, said the F-102 is, in fact, nearly an "inhabited missile" in which the pilot—except for take-offs and landings— "becomes scarcely more than a flesh-and-blood monitor for the little black (electronics) boxes which do the work."

The magazine featured on its cover what it said was the first published artist's conception of the F-102. The Air Force association is an organization of veterans and members of the Air Force.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1952

Our remedies oft in ourselves do lie, which we ascribe to Heaven—William Shakespeare.

There's Prosperity Ahead

WHILE arguments wax hotter over whether the US is facing a slump when the defense boom tapers off, Fortune magazine comes out with an encouraging appraisal of what's ahead.

After studying the markets, Fortune concludes: "The facts do not make a case for pessimism."

Fortune assumes that US defense spending will settle down from a peak of $56 billion to a "maintenance level" of 40 billion by late 1955 (barring, of course, an all-out war, or a series of major crises short of war).

Half of this $40 billion would go to buy durable goods — and this in itself would mean a vastly bigger military backlog than makers of these goods have had in any previous "normal" peacetime year.

Beyond this backlog, however, the key to prosperity would be the market for civilian durable goods: industrial plant and tools on the one hand, consumer buying of houses, automobiles etc. on the other.

Fortune sees an excellent potential for household goods; a "relatively stable" future for automobiles; only a slight decline in house construction; and the prospect that several industries, such as chemicals and electric utilities, will expand their investment.

This is the economic picture considered "most reasonable" for late 1955.

A gross national product of $348 billion in 1955 (the rate of the fourth quarter of 1952); a larger labor force, higher productivity, and unemployment possibly around five million.

Those who talk about the possibility of severe depression are reminded that there are many "built-in stabilizers" in the US economy today that did not exist in 1929. Some leading safeguards:

1. Private debt is much lower today than in 1929 (proportionate to gross national product); liquid assets of consumers and business are much larger.
2. Tax reductions will expand consumer and corporate incomes when defense spending declines.
3. The government is in effect committed to bolster consumer income when business recedes — through farm price supports, unemployment compensation, old-age pensions. For business, there are excess-profit tax carrybacks.
4. There is a very large backlog of war-deferred public works — from $30 billion to $60 billion worth of highways, schools etc.

Aided by the Republican commitment to expand the export of private US capital, exports of civilian durable goods can be expected to increase by $1 billion to $3 billion a year.

Apart from these safeguards, there are "reasonable" markets for durable goods in 1955: increased sales of dryers, dishwashers, freezers, air conditioners etc.; a possible 25 percent increase in TV-radio sales if color TV goes over; above-average volume for tires, auto parts, jewelry, luggage, china-ware, home tools.

"Probable" figure for automobile production: 5,000,000 (or just under the 1949-51 average of 5,400,000). A reasonable guess for house construction three years hence is 900,000 units a year (as compared to an average of 1,180,000 units for 1950-52), but a plausible case can be made for 1,200,000 units.

The biggest "if" in the whole analysis is the attitude of consumers.

But a survey (hitherto unpublished) made last June by the Survey Research Center at the University of Michigan, found that consumer "optimists" outnumbered pessimists (two-to-one on the subject of prosperity during the next five years (31 percent felt good times would prevail; 17 percent said hard times; while the rest were uncertain or did not reply).

The number of people who are uncertain may diminish as time goes on. Nearly half the people surveyed said they were "better off" than five years ago and 37 percent expected gains during the next five years, whereas only 8 percent expected losses.

Thus, "if prices do not rise and taxes come down, people may very well be more favorably disposed toward buying in 1955 than they are at present."

Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where the Cleveland Indians want to play all their baseball games at night. If the plan goes through, the old standby of the diamond sport, the bleachers, will have to find a new name.

Garlic flavored popcorn soon may be on the market. Look! Aren't the movies having enough box office worries as it?

And say: Americans bought 83 million cans of pumpkins in the past year. Gosh, I was wondering where all that left-over Thanksgiving pie came from.

Christmas Decorations Suggestion Made

Make Haste Slowly

To the Editor: I agree with Civic Minded ("Decorations Panned," Readers say, Nov. 19) who said Christmas decorations in the business district should be changed every year.

I don't think the entire system should be overhauled in one year, though. The change should be gradual, such as that which occurs in private homes.

By adding a little to the present decorations each year, eventually it may be possible to string lights for the entire length of High street.

Also by putting new electrical equipment in the system each year instead of just maintaining the old, it will help keep replacement costs at minimum.

If the mercantile bureau just tries to keep its old equipment, eventually it may find that everything will wear out almost at once.

I believe something new in Christmas decorations could be added in the borough if the example of other cities would be followed.

WASHINGTON

Stalin Deeply Disturbed Over Satellite Disloyalty

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The Prague trials of Czechoslovakian Communists for disloyalty confirm State Department and United Nations data that Stalin is deeply disturbed over growing resentment against his iron rule among the satellite nations.

Indeed, his concern over widespread hatred toward the Russians throughout his empire, including China, is the surest safe-guard against his provoking a World War III in the near future. He cannot depend upon the wartime support of the 600,000,000 people inside his police state.

As a generalissimo of guerrillas in World War II, he knows well how a hostile populace could hamstring his forces in the field. He fought Hitler with these tactics.

The prevalence of "Titoism" in such a strategic area as Czechoslovakia is especially threatening to his program of expansion and conquest. The hard-fighting Czechs are his shock troops in the Balkan Peninsula. Without control of this country, he has no direct access to other satellites in that territory.

WITH GREECE, Yugoslavia and Turkey, a hostile Czechoslovakia would be a permanent threat to the flank of Russian armies invading Central and Western Europe. In short, Stalin cannot think of waging large-scale war against the Western world, unless he can continue to control his puppet government at Prague.

Diplomatic experts find support for this theory in the contrast between his 1935 purge of veteran Bolsheviks and his current prosecution of Czech subordinates. The difference in procedure between the two programs indicates that Uncle Joe is really worried.

In the 1935 affair, Western diplomats and newspaper correspondents were permitted to attend the courtroom trials, which were conducted by Prosecutor Andrei Vishinsky, now Soviet delegate to the United Nations.

They reported that former Soviet officials stood in the dock, and confessed gladly, even enthusiastically, to their traitorous conduct. Even Joseph E. Davies, then US Ambassador to Moscow, sent this information to Washington.

IT WAS THEN believed that Stalin was simply employing the purge to rid himself of political rivals for leadership. Subsequent revelations prove that the defendants were hatching a conspiracy with Hitler to overthrow the Communist regime. They were disappointed and disgusted with Stalin's perversion of their original plans for Russian revolution and progress.

In the meantime, the experiences of Robert Voegler and many other victims of Red prosecutions have given us an explanation of these confessions. They are induced by months and even years of drugs, torture and twisted psychological treatment. It is humanly impossible for the victims to conceal their real or supposed crimes.

In view of this exposure of his practices, Stalin has barred all Westerners from the current trials. He realizes that the West would regard them as a farce. However, he is giving full publicity to them in Russia and behind the iron curtain as a warning to prospective rebels against his regime.

It is obvious that, unless there were practical grounds for this legal massacre of Communist leaders of Czechoslovakia, Moscow would not stage it. Save for the scare effect throughout the Soviet's police state, the advertising is the worst possible kind for Stalin's supposedly benign and helpful rule at home and abroad.

Wants Dial 'Phones

To the Editor: When is Pottstown going to have a dial telephone system installed?

Many of the nearby communities have replaced their voice systems.

The antiquated method of calling the operator and having her get your number is not only inconvenient but much slower than the modern telephone methods.

And with dials, the caller may let the telephone ring long enough to allow the person on the other end of the line put on a pair of slippers and a robe before answering the telephone without having the operator say into the receiver, sometimes politely and other times impatiently. "Nobody seems to answer."

With dial telephones, the company advertises to customers to let the telephone ring at least ten times to allow a person enough time to answer.

In a large, growing community such as Pottstown, this slow and aggravating telephone system should be improved.

Back-Pat for Mercury

To the Editor: I think The Mercury deserves a pat on the back for its interest in the poor and needy.

The latest story on Mrs. Angeline Carthy, Penn Village mother of nine children, is just one of many services performed by the paper for those who have been kicked in the shins by life.

Not many months ago the paper started a fund for little Bobby Walters, cancer victim.

I've always gotten a great deal of pleasure out of the paper's campaigning spirit. I want to congratulate the paper and all its staff.

Keep up the good work.

The Voice of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

Broadway Notebook

A GIRL radio singer, who just hit the big time this season, has an unusual fan waiting for her at the stage door—a process server. He was sent from her husband, a beverage tycoon who wants to divorce her, and the flipper is that nobody knew she was married!

Vera-Ellen is sighing over Russ Severin, a new flicker face. The town's prettiest chorines and cover girls have a new hangout: Gordon Andrews' Pica-Rib on West 52nd street, which stays open until four in the morning.

Actress Carol Spear will walk down the aisle with George Gold, a lingerie mogul, on Dec. 14. Toy King Louis Marx can have an ambassador's post if he wants it. American TV executives are secretly negotiating to buy up part of the pre-war German output of films, for video screening here. English will be dubbed in.

Dig the crazy monickers of the long-hair violin virtuosi coming to Carnegie Hall soon: Toshiya Eto and Tossy Spivakovsky.

Mickey Spillane's publishers should move to Tin Pan Alley. They're taking ads claiming their boy's latest book, "Kiss Me, Deadly," will pass the million mark in sales. Hemingway, Steinbeck and Ferber don't claim half that total for their best-sellers.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE is considering an offer to make films for television. . . . If half the stories about Betty Davis and the "Two's Company" cast are true, UN war correspondents ought to be covering the show. Yet everybody says her performance in it is great. . . . Four of the dancing dolls on the Jackie Gleason TV stanza will walk down the aisle during the Christmas holidays—Lee Joyce, Pat Cotten, Christina Fredrichs and Gloria Sicking. Jerri Higgins is trying to get an annulment of her marriage to George Ross Jr., instead of a divorce. . . . Danny Kaye's agent could line up a world tour for the comedian, if he'd say the word. He wants to book Danny for next Spring and Summer, picture commitments permitting.

Louise Brooks, a star in the silent movies, will marry Jimmy Dunn of the Merchant Marine next month. . . . The story about Joe Pasternak wedding Lana Turner is strictly a gag. He's in hot pursuit of his ex-wife, Dorothy.

SID CHAPLIN has switched from his dad's leading lady, Claire Bloom to Evelyn Keyes. . . . Atty. Gen. Nathaniel L. Goldstein is set to release his headline-making narcotics reports—with emphasis on the juvenile situation.

I see by the papers where Harry Truman has become a solid-color tie man. The President who made haberdashery history by appearing at a formal dinner in a silver-patterned black bow tie, and came close to blinding the nation with a series of scenic spots shirts, appears to be going conservative as he goes out of office.

The President-Designate seems to be a geometric-pattern and regimental-stripes type, and none of the cabinet members so far chosen are in the black knit, or Madison Avenue groove. John Foster Dulles' official photograph shows him in a dark tie patterned with light rectangles; Charles E. Wilson's studio portrait fairly jumps with the jazzy number he was sporting when snapped. So it would seem from superficial examination that the nation's most successful men buy conspicuous and rather naive neckwear, and only when a fan flunks out does he become conservative and authentically elegant.

GUNNERS—Dabis M. Shaner, Osborne March, Wilfred Stauffer, "D. H. Gausman, Samuel S. Bossert, Theodore Hahn and Dr. Cyrus Trego have returned from a two weeks deer hunting trip to Monument, Center county. They bagged three deer, two of them does.

SELENE WALTERS has a new diamond ring. But we dunno whether its for engagement or encouragement. . . . Jack Entratter, who'll operate the new Sands hotel in Las Vegas, is in town looking for models or dancers to be "permanents" show girls there.

SANDS, which officially opens Dec. 15th, will be the most. . . . Clinical notes: Pat Vanderbilt, who's been hospitalized with her neck in traction for weeks, expected home this week. . . . Marilyn Morrison (Johnny Ray's wife) whose weight went down to 89 pounds—is up to 92 and doing much better. Though no one yet knows the cause of her illness. . . . If it's true John Wayne is being constantly trailed by private eyes, what's the point? He and Esperanza have been separated for months so spotting him with a gal would mean little.

SUDDEN DEATH—William H. Rutter, 53, well known Stowe resident, died from a stroke. He was a son of Justice of the Peace Thomas G. Rutter and was a former iron worker. Later he conducted a store in Stowe and was the first postmaster of the village.

His companion on the cycle, Barclay Forrest, 31, of Spring City, was injured but will recover.

Others who played well for the locals were Ken Drumheller, Charles Wiley, Gerry Ego, Johnny La Pish, Mike Carlini, Bob Garber and Jimmy Ottaviano. For Norco the stars were Jake Sovia, Pete McCham, Harvey Shaner, Floyd Hartman, Don Stauffer, Herbert Beekley and Don Keeler. Several thousand persons witnessed the game on Franklin field.

Hollywood

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 26 — The Government has decreed that all big motion picture producing companies sell their theaters or theater-chains, since this constitutes a monopoly. In other words, no studio may own theaters after certain dates. However, there is no law that says theater-owners can't produce pictures! So, unless the "divorcement decree" is killed, why don't big producers lease or sell their studios and keep their theaters and then resume production as separate corporations? It could be as simple as that (This note-to-idle thought is worth a billion to a few. But thass ok fellers—just send us a 5-pound box of 50es!)

RITA HAYWORTH will do "Pal Joey" after "Sadie Thompson." IF Columbia can borrow Gene Kelly (who did the show ten years ago on Broadway) as her co-star. Hinges on whether Kelly's 18-month overseas stay is over in time. . . . Rumors are rampant that Eddie Cantor will retire when present commitments (including recording songs for his screen life-story) are completed. But we expect to see Eddie bouncing across the theatrical horizon for years to come! . . . After a gab including a new be-bop joke, Jane Greer told us she's amicably out of her Metro contract (where the kind of parts she hoped for weren't forthcoming) and glad to be free-lancing. Jane was wanted as femme star of "The City That Never Sleeps." The lady said, "No." Her former producer spouse, Ed Lasker, who is rich even after taxes, is having a ball studying law in a class with a bunch of lads 21 years old! Ed says he may never practice. It's just something he's always wanted to learn.

SELENE WALTERS has a new diamond ring. But we dunno whether its for engagement or encouragement. . . . Jack Entratter, who'll operate the new Sands hotel in Las Vegas, is in town looking for models or dancers to be "permanents" show girls there. The Sands, which officially opens Dec. 15th, will be the most. . . . Clinical notes: Pat Vanderbilt, who's been hospitalized with her neck in traction for weeks, expected home this week. . . . Marilyn Morrison (Johnny Ray's wife) whose weight went down to 89 pounds—is up to 92 and doing much better. Though no one yet knows the cause of her illness. . . . If it's true John Wayne is being constantly trailed by private eyes, what's the point? He and Esperanza have been separated for months so spotting him with a gal would mean little.

SUDDEN DEATH—William H. Rutter, 53, well known Stowe resident, died from a stroke. He was a son of Justice of the Peace Thomas G. Rutter and was a former iron worker. Later he conducted a store in Stowe and was the first postmaster of the village.

FATAL CRASH—Robert A. Latshaw, 20, son of Hosea Latshaw, Spring City, was fatally injured when a motorcycle he was operating on Lewis road near Royersford was sideswiped by a car operated by Herman Narvel, of 435 Beech street. His companion on the cycle, Barclay Forrest, 31, of Spring City, was injured but will recover.

LOSES LEG—John A. Fletcher, of near Spring City, had his left leg shattered below the knee by a load of buckshot as a result of his shotgun being exploded by his hunting dog treading on the trigger. He had laid the gun on the ground after shooting at some birds.

CADDIES GUESTS—Brookside Country club was host to caddies. The golf tournament was won by Henry Neiffer. Prizes were also awarded to Earl Mackrich, Gerald Prior, Paul Kohler, Morris Sassaman, Douglas O'Dell, Paul Haring, Ronald Dengler, Joseph Cehlar and others.

★ WANTS OTHERS AIDED—Mrs. John Hojeki, 626 East Philadelphia avenue, Boyertown, has made a generous request—that the hundreds of people who had been sending cards and gifts to her 7-year-old son, David, during his long battle with a hip-bone disease, send the cards to someone else this Christmas. She explained that during his two years in hospitals, he received more than 1000 cards from people, many of whom had read of David's illness in The Mercury. This year, he'll have a Christmas at home for the first time in three years. He came home the past February, recovered almost completely from the ailment, which with less speedy and effective care could have crippled him for life. . . .

DAVID IS in the first grade at Washington school and his last report card had all A's. Mrs. Hojeki said the greetings sent by Mercury readers did a world of good in keeping up his spirits. She suggested that the people who have him on their Christmas card list send the cards to someone else who is ill and needs the cheering-up more than David now does. She said she felt sure many people still have him on their card list because of the flood of Easter cards he received after he returned from Seashore home. a hospital in Atlantic City, N. J.

★ "CRAZY" SON-IN-LAW—Mrs. Leland K. Simons, who formerly lived at 427 Highland road, but who now lives in Sanford, N. C., sent a note saying that this week's issue of the Saturday Evening Post has an article about the unusual flower-growing of three young men in Sanford—one of them Frank Joyce, husband of her daughter, Leandra. Titled "What A Crazy Way To Grow Flowers," the article outlines the story of how the men decided it was possible to grow chrysanthemums that bloomed all year 'round.

Despite those who said the idea was "screwed," the trio gained financial backing from the whole town of Sanford and from people as far north as Kennett Square, Chester county. They've made a success of it, now raise 1000 blooms a week, every week. Mrs. Simons' husband, the late Leland K. Simons, was best known as "Jack." After moving from Highland road 14 years ago, the family lived on Schuykill road, Pottstown RD 1. He was sales manager for a Conshohocken firm.

★ EMBARRASSING—Charley Wylie, the Memorial hospital ex-administrator, was all decked out in a new grey sports coat the other day. It was a gift from his wife, a reminder of 32 years of happily married life. The Wylies, who live at 639 King street, observed their wedding anniversary early in the week. Charley was proud of his new raiment, but then was embarrassed when it was pointed out the tailor's tag remained on his right sleeve. . . . Dr. John A. Anthony has an innovation in his Pottstown waiting room. He has a tape recorder playing soothing music. . . . GIVE AWAY DEPT.—Small, mixed, black female dog, 9 months old. YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

ALCOHOL—the same kind that is found in beverages—is an important medicine when administered by your doctor. Very commonly it is used to dissolve other drugs. Sometimes it is given by mouth, sometimes by hypodermic injections.

Probably few people, however, would guess that alcohol vapor can also be breathed, and in this form can be a life-saver for persons with certain lung disorders due to heart trouble.

In the condition commonly known as heart failure, the blood tends to dam up in the blood vessels because the weakened heart cannot pump it properly. Some results of this slowing of the flow of blood can be seen when the liver enlarges and the ankles swell up.

In the lungs, the blood serum may escape from the blood vessels and enter the air sacs of the lung. This causes difficulty in breathing and shortness of breath.

When too much blood serum enters the lung sacs, we have a condition known as pulmonary edema. Then something happens that resembles the agitating action of a washing machine. As the person breathes, the activity of his lung whips the escaped blood serum into a froth in the lung sacs.

This bubbly foam interferes with oxygen exchange by the lung and tends to become progressively worse. Thus, the body tissues fail to receive their adequate amounts of oxygen and a vicious cycle is set up. If the cycle is not broken, death will occur from lack of oxygen—a form of medical suffocation.

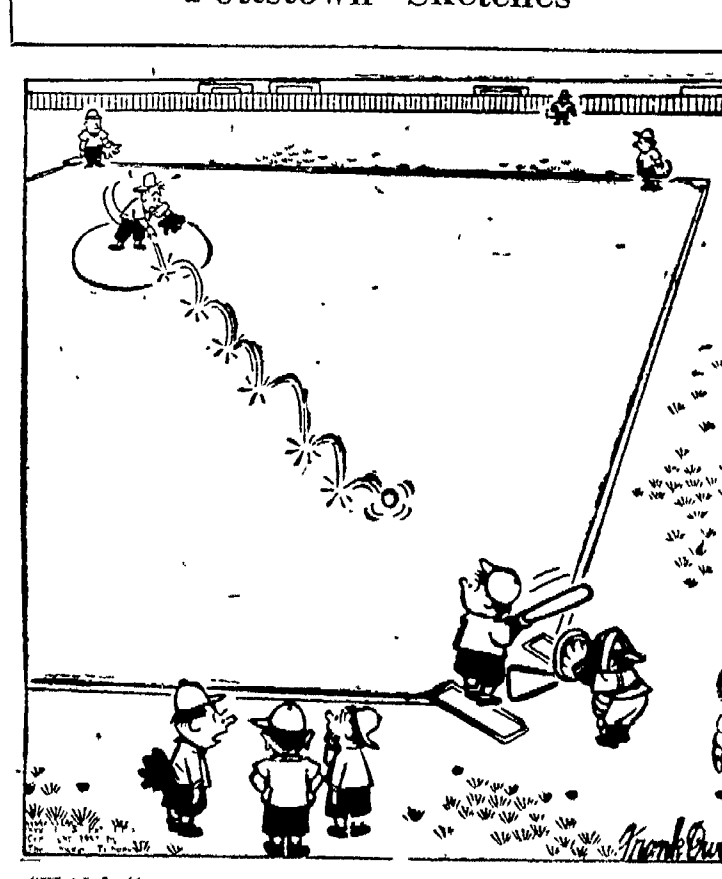

Most cases of pulmonary edema are due to heart failure, but the condition also occurs in severe shock, and from many other causes.

Many substances have been tried out to see if this foaming cycle could be stopped. The most effective of all was found to be ethyl alcohol.

In this treatment, the alcohol vapor must be breathed into the lung sacs. The method used is to put forty percent alcohol in a humidifier bottle—the kind that is usually filled with water and used to humidify air. Oxygen to be breathed by the patient is then run through the bottle, so he actually receives a combination of oxygen and alcohol vapor. Usually this is given for fifteen minutes at a time, followed by thirty minutes rest, till the person shows some improvement.

Does the person get drunk? No, because the blood stream does not absorb much of the alcohol—not nearly as much as from a drink of hard liquor.

Pottstown Portraits

A Quick Look at Your Neighbor

By FRED C. SELBY

SAMUEL R. SCHEFFLER, 409 CHESTNUT STREET, who will retire as Pottstown RD 2 mail carrier on Dec. 30 after 17 years of service, has had a long, colorful career that includes having sailed on four-masted schooners, owned some of Pottstown's biggest and best-known dogs, and served as a one-man court of human relations.

In his 17 years as rural carrier in Northern Chester county, he has driven 240,000 miles, the equivalent of nearly ten times around the World, made more than 2,000,000 stops and delivered nearly 4,500,000 pieces of mail.

The 62-year-old Scheffler said with a smile on his lean, weather-tanned face: "These rural carriers — they're a mother confessor." He recalled that once a woman came hurrying out of her house to get Scheffler's advice on whether she should marry a man she knew.

Scheffler was almost as badly stuck by this question as his car was stuck by a snowdrift the past Winter on a hill along his route. A bulldozer tried vainly to get his car out. A caterpillar tractor finally did. Shortly after this experience, Scheffler got pneumonia.

To people in the borough, Scheffler is much better known for his dogs than for his mail-carrying. His best known dogs were "Queenie" and then "Lady," who died four years ago, weighed between 175 and 180 pounds.

Scheffler took them on frequent walks not only in the neighborhood but also in the business section. The huge dogs let children pet them as much as they wanted.

"I guess practically every child in Pottstown either sat on, or laid on, or petted one or the other of them," Scheffler asserted. "Even now, I don't think I come down the street one day a year when somebody doesn't ask me where's Lady or where's Queenie."

Queenie was noted for her habit of accompanying Scheffler to restaurants and sitting down firmly until she was served a bone. "Lady," Scheffler recalled, "she liked ice cream, as long as it was vanilla." Scheffler sometimes ran out of pocket money paying for the ice cream cones that Lady's big, soft eyes successfully begged away from children.

Both dogs often would sit on a High street sidewalk for a half hour while one child after another took turns petting them.

No one-breed dog-lover, Scheffler switched his allegiance after Lady's death from St. Bernards to French poodles. He has four poodles now, the smallest of them weighing 17½ pounds less than Lady's top weight.

For those who may think raising dogs is a dull business, Scheffler can recite stories of dog families that have more domestic troubles and more violence than any soap-opera family.

For example, his gentlest poodle, who never even looked like it would nip anything, once ran amok for a few seconds and killed two little puppies belonging to another female poodle. It's been entirely gentle ever since.

Scheffler isn't sure what he'll do after his retirement. One possibility is seeking a job as a rural policeman (he's been a fire policeman and Empire Hook and Ladd company member for years).

"There's a lot of possibilities," Scheffler said. He ran his fingers through his thick shock of iron-gray hair and added with a smile, "There'll be dogs, though."

Scheffler also will be busy being a grandfather. He and his wife, Eva McGuirk Scheffler, have three grandchildren, all living within two blocks of their home.

The three are: Kathleen and Patrick Panfile, children of Mary Grace and Alfred Panfile, 443 Chestnut street, and Stanley Nedzia Jr., son of Celine and Stanley Nedzia, 345 King street.

In addition to the two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Scheffler had a son, Army Pfc. Arthur Scheffler, who was killed during the Battle of the Bulge and is buried in Luxemburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Scheffler were married in one of Pennsylvania's few triple weddings. It was in Pittsburgh in 1920, shortly after his return from World War I. Scheffler had gone to Pittsburgh in 1908. From then until 1914, he had been a sailor on Great Lakes boats during the Summer and four-masted ocean schooners during the Winter (when the Lakes are frozen).

He met his future wife through one of her brothers. The brother and another sister were also principals in the triple wedding. Scheffler didn't know the other bride and two other grooms.

When he was married, Scheffler stopped going down to the sea, for good financial reasons: he once made a 90-day voyage on a four-masted schooner, from Baltimore, Md., to Key West, Fla., to Galveston, Tex., to Boston, Mass., and for that, he was paid a total of $45.

At that, his sailor's wages were big money compared with what he got on his first job—as "Glae Gnecht". "The Small Hired Man" on a Pennsylvania Dutch farm in Blandon, Berks county.

He was 12 years old then. His parents had died when he was very young, and he had been hired out after living with a grandmother in Mont Clare.

"As 'Glae Gnecht,' he'd get up at 5 a. m., milk 18 cows, carry water to the men in the fields and keep busy between trips with such jobs as washing dishes.

He got 5 cents a week spending money the first year. "Sometimes 10," he added.

His next year, he got $3 a month for seven months. "Next year," Scheffler said, "I was too big, so they fired me (I'd have been getting too much money, I guess)."

He took the $21 and went on a boyish spree. He recalled that a highlight of the spree was a big restaurant dinner, in Reading. It cost 15 cents.

During World War I, he enlisted in the cavalry and served in the Philippines, Vladivostok, Russia, and Nagasaki, Japan. It was on his return from the war that he was married.

In 1930, he was appointed a rural mail carrier in the Pittsburgh section. And five years later, he transferred to Pottstown. Virtually all of the time since, he's lived at the Chestnut street address.

Town Citizens Ask Probe Into Death

VALDOSTA, Ga., Nov. 27 (AP) — Valdosta citizens today joined a grieving father in asking a State investigation of the death of a young doctor in a Richlands, Va., police station.

R. E. Miller said "15 or 20 letters" asking the State to investigate the death of his son, Dr. Grant S. Miller, 27, of Raven, Va., have been sent to Virginia Governor John S. Battle and Commonwealth Attorney James Harman Jr., of Tazewell, Va.

Richlands police said the mining community doctor collapsed and died Sunday while being arraigned on a reckless driving charge.

In Tazewell, Harman said a statement made here by the elder Miller seemed to intimate that his son was mistreated by Richlands police. Harman said there was no evidence of mistreatment and that the physician's father "apparently was influenced by a lot of unfounded rumors."

Virginia officers reported they chased Dr. Miller over several miles of mountain roads Saturday night but failed to catch him. The doctor was arrested on reckless driving charges when he returned to his home at Raven Sunday.

The boundary between Canada and the United States is 2198 miles of water and 1788 miles of dry land.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 (AP) — Josephine Cobb of the National Archives hopes to have an answer soon as to whether Abraham Lincoln is one of the figures in a Civil War era photograph of Hanover Junction, Pa.

Miss Cobb, chief of the archives' still picture division, told a reporter today she has been allowed some time to work on that project exclusively and therefore hopes to reach a decision sooner than she first anticipated.

She said she could not set a date, however, because the archives, as official keeper of the nation's records, captions its photographs with utmost care.

"I will have to substantiate my decision," she said. "I'll have to have proof, and that requires detailed work."

The photograph shows a group of persons standing at a junction. She questioned whether it was Hanover Junction, Pa., or some place in Virginia. But Miss Cobb said she is convinced it is Hanover, Pa. The big question is whether a figure in stove pipe hat and dark attire is Lincoln.

MAN RUN OVER, KILLED
CHAMBERSBURG, Nov. 27 (AP) — Ulysses S. Stone, 59, of Hagers-town, Md., was run over and killed by a truck in an accident at the Letterkenny Ordnance depot today.

Gl's Chip in Money For Visit by Mother

NORTH FT. HOOD, Nov. 27 (AP) — It was only a form letter but Mrs. Refugio Gonzales did not realize that when it arrived at her pulled right around her head, little cotton acreage near Mesilla, N. M.

Maj. Gen. Bruce C. Clarke, commander of Fort Hood, said he was pleased to inform you that your son has arrived at Fort Hood for training with the famed First Armored division.

Write your boy often the General urged, and visit him if you can. Someone read the letter to the frail little mother and someone took down her answer. She was glad her son was in good hands. She wished she could visit him. But she had no money for that, her boy was her only support. "I don't have any help—just my god," she said.

The reply hadn't been here long when other privates in Pvt. Pedro Lopez's Fourth Training company heard about it. They began to collect pennies, nickels, dimes, finally dollars.

That's how it happened that Mrs. Gonzales, her black shawl, arrived yesterday with her daughter, Mrs. Maggie Lopez. Today it was Thanksgiving Day, you know—they were special guests of Fort Hood soldiers.

West German Miners Vote Strike If Necessary

BOCHUM, Germany, Nov. 27 (AP) — The West German Miners' union said today its members in the Ruhr had voted to strike if necessary to enforce their demands for cutting the eight-hour day in half. The union said 97 percent of its total membership of 400,000 voted to strike unless present labor-management negotiations end in an agreement.

EVANSBURG

Mrs. B. R. Yerkes, corr., Phone 5806, H. Hobbs, del., Phone 6000.

Mr. and Mrs. Hershell Webb and daughter, Linda, returned home Saturday from a month's visit with Mr. Webb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Webb, Oklahoma.

Girl Scout troop 8 and Brownie troop 35 of Evansburg enjoyed a skating party at Indianhead park with 114 persons in attendance. The Scout troop held its meeting this week at Boyer school; next Wednesday evening they will have no meeting. The following week they will meet again in St. James parish house. The troop is selling Christmas candy and orders may be placed with any of the members of the troop.

The Rev. and Mrs. Maris Griffiths observed their 17th wedding anniversary. Sunday, the pastor of the Evansburg Methodist church will observe his birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stephens entertained Mr. Stephen's brother, Corsen Stephens, Coatesville. Mr. and Mrs. James Irvine and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Yerkes attended the annual continental district Boy Scout banquet held in the Friendship Fire hall, Royersford. Arnold Brown, Trappe, was a guest of Boy Scout troop 1 of Evansburg. He served the boys samples of chili con carne as a part of the advertising program of the Hormel Company by whom he is employed.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. William Risher celebrated the return of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Risher and daughter, Susan, from Trieste and the birthday of Mr. Risher with a dinner at Moorehead's restaurant. Shirley Rowan entertained the group with piano selections.

Members of the family present included: Mrs. Kathryn Kaufman and sons, Billy and Wesley, Philadelphia; Mrs. Dorothy Rowan and children, Shirley and Edwin, Bridgeport; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rhoads and son, Paul; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Risher, Mrs. Helen Jones, Paul Jones, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. William Hessler and daughter, Barbara; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Risher and sons, Charles and Howard Jr.; Ralph Risher, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Risher and daughter, Susan, and Mr. and Mrs. William Risher, all of Evansburg.

STALIN'S SON HURT

British Statesmen to Plan Attack on Economic Problems

LONDON, Nov. 27 (AP) — British statesmen met here today to plan a joint attack on the critical economic problems confronting the Commonwealth.

Prime Minister Churchill opened a two-week meeting with prime ministers or their deputies from the dominions. Among other things, they will seek means for giving more freedom and power to the pound sterling.

There were immediate reports that the group is divided over just how to achieve this goal.

The conferees faced a four-point agenda covering Commonwealth development and investment programs:

1. Commodity production.
2. Sales and prices.
3. The state of their business with the outside world.

BESIDE CHURCHILL, prime ministers attending are Louis St. Laurent of Canada, Robert G. Menzies of Australia, Sidney G. Holland of New Zealand, Khwaja Nazimuddin of Pakistan, Dudley Senanayake of Ceylon and Sir Godfrey Huggins of Southern Rhodesia.

India and South Africa are represented by their respective finance ministers, Sir C. D. Deshmukh and N. C. Havenga. Colonial Secretary Oliver Lyttelton spoke for Britain's colonies.

The territories represented sprawl across all the continents of the world and include about 550 million people of every race, creed, and color.

Sessions of the prime ministers' talks are closed. Churchill was said to have stressed in his welcoming address that the Commonwealth's quest for its economic woes would have world importance.

The current parity is expected to slide by stages into an eventual world economic conference to discuss many problems.

A CONVERTIBLE POUND is one of the main goals of the British family of nations. It would mean, for the first time in some years, a man with pounds in his pocket could buy freely with it the money of any other country—American dollars, Portuguese escudos, Swiss francs.

to set freer and broader trade patterns. She aims thus at building up a vast, unhampered trading area taking in the Commonwealth, non-Communist Europe, and the dollar countries. Only then, Britain holds, can convertibility be tried safely.

A Joint Commonwealth and European approach to President-Elect Eisenhower's new Government is expected for early next year. The US would be asked to help by cutting tariffs, revising customs laws, investing more abroad, and—maybe—by using some of its Ft. Knox gold to support weak currencies.

The pound now can be exchanged freely only within the sterling area. This includes all Commonwealth countries except Canada, which has a dollar currency, in addition to about a half-dozen foreign states.

An official source said that Canada, South Africa and Australia intend to press hard for a quick dash toward freeing the pound. These three dominions are prosperous and pay their way in the world. They argue that a free pound and a strong pound are indissolubly linked.

The informants said that Britain, India, Pakistan, Ceylon, New Zealand and Southern Rhodesia do not accept this view. They believe it would be disastrous to free the pound too much and too quickly. They hold that there can be no short cuts to currency exchange freedom, which, in their view, must come after the sterling group makes its own keep and has enough left over to save for hard times.

Britain, whose view counts for the most in the Commonwealth, has made it plain that the whole non-Communist world must get together, to set freer and broader trade patterns. She aims thus at building up a vast, unhampered trading area taking in the Commonwealth, non-Communist Europe, and the dollar countries. Only then, Britain holds, can convertibility be tried safely.

Restaurateur's Test Paying Proposition, But Has Drawbacks

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 27 (AP) — Letting the customers decide their own charges and pay their own bills at the cash register can be interesting for a restaurateur, but it has its drawbacks.

Paul Arsens, proprietor of two cafes, who is conducting the experiment in both establishments, said today people never stop asking questions, and the telephone never stops ringing.

"The New York news services and two radio systems have kept in contact with us since we started this scheme the past Monday," he said. "We're still getting letters, wires and telephone calls from all over the continent."

Customers at the two restaurants order what they wish, then pay what they wish. So far, a whole outfit back to the city jail, large proportion—pay more than is required, a majority pay the price shown on the menu, and a scattered few have taken full advantage of the invitation to "pay what you wish."

Football Team Jailed For Stealing Liquor

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Nov. 27 (AP) — Police today locked up all 37 members of a Washington, D.C., sandlot football team and prepared warrants charging them with a wholesale raid on a local liquor store.

The team—the Stonewall A.C. — was returning to Washington by bus from a game with the Chambersburg, Pa., Cardinals in the Pennsylvania city.

Charles Startzman, owner of Startzman's liquor store, said they stopped off and made several purchases. However, he reported that when they left, he found 14 fifths of liquor were missing and unpaid for along with a couple cases of beer and several cartons of cigarettes.

Police stopped the bus six miles out of Hagerstown and brought the officers said they found most of the liquor in the bus.

Washington, D.C. has one street named Fighting Alley and another called Donnybrook Lane.

+++ SCHOOL DAYS +++

— In Upper Pottsgrove School —

Class Sees Program On Video as Part of Book Week Project

By BARBARA GEISER
On Friday morning the Fifth grade enjoyed a television program entitled "Story Time." It was a special program for Book Week.

Some Fifth graders from the Philadelphia schools told us about their favorite books.

We also heard Genevieve Foster, widely-known author of children's stories. She was presented as a special Book-Week guest.

The bulletin board in our hall was decorated. It was done by Dorothy Clemmer and Pearl Rhoads under the supervision of our first grade teacher.

The scene shows a window of a house and what you see when you look out of it.

Bernetta Mest had a birthday on the past Tuesday. She was 10 years old. Arlene Austin had a birthday yesterday. She was 12 years old.

Virginia Messer went to Boyertown. Kenneth Stroop went to Spring City. Alice Pollinot went to Pittsburgh.

INJURED MAN DIES
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 27 (AP)—Injured when his automobile crashed through a guard rail on a ramp, Robert J. Fritz of Pittsburgh died today in Allegheny General hospital of a skull fracture and internal injuries. Fritz was injured during the rush hour yesterday on a Duquesne way ramp in downtown Pittsburgh.

Safely Patrol Meets At Morning Recess

By BARRY RHODS
The regular meeting of our Safety patrol was held recently during morning recess period. The meeting was in charge of Captain Larry Gerhart.

The following patrol members were appointed to take charge and keep order on the buses. Presce's bus—Virginia Messer. Frances Schroyer and Sandra Snyder. Ringling Hill bus—Binnie Tosher and Shirley Rhoads. The last bus—Bertine Mest and Bernetta Mest.

Mr. Ferdinand, principal, told us of the importance of wearing white after dark.

The following patrol members were present:

HOMES ARE CHILLY
PITTSBURGH, Kas., Nov. 29 (AP)—A gas pipeline failure put a chill in thousands of homes in southern Kansas and Missouri this Thanksgiving Day, leaving many without fuel for heating or cooking.

New England Study Probes Second State

In Fifth grade we are studying our third New England State, New Hampshire.

Bernetta Mest and Francis Schroyer gave reports about New Hampshire. We learned from their reports that the capital is Concord. The population is 465,293. The area is 9341.

One of the original 13 states, the New Hampshire state flower is the Purple Lilac.

New Hampshire is called the Quarry State. The chief industries are dairying and manufacturing. A great deal of granite comes from New Hampshire.

We also learned about the history of New Hampshire. We learned that New England was founded by the English in 1623 in Portsmouth.

The colony was founded by Captain John Mason who received a grant of land from the English, but after Captain Mason died no one paid attention to his rights, and in 1641 Massachusetts took over that colony until 1679 when it was made a separate province. It became one of the original 13 colonies in the year 1788.

Stork Likes Thanksgiving For 'Calling' on Couple

BERLIN, N. H., Nov. 27 (AP)—The stork has an apparent preference for Thanksgiving Day when calling on the Wilfred McCready.

A boy was born today to Mrs. McCready.

The couple has two other children—Louise, born on Thanksgiving Day 1943, and Richard, a 1949 Thanksgiving Day arrival.

The boundary between the United States and Canada has been called the longest unfortified frontier in the world.

Pupils Mark Weekend With Trips to Relatives

By SHIRLEY RHODS
In Mrs. Wanner's room, the following people went away over the weekend:

Warren Willauer went to New York, Harry Overholtzer, Sonya Markarevitz, Judith Herrlinger, Jane Marie Gross, and Shirley Ann Baker went to their grandmothers. Bonnie Smith went to her aunt's house.

Diane Bealer will celebrate her sixth birthday today. Ruth Rick celebrated her seventh birthday Tuesday.

Pupils Study First Plane Built by Wright Brothers

By BINNIE TOSHER
In Mrs. Hughes' room the boys and girls are studying about the Wright Brothers in the making of the first airplane that would fly.

Model airplanes of today were brought in by the children.

Every Friday afternoon the boys and girls have a story period. Guy Rimel told a story entitled "Captain Max's Wishing Well." Larry Geiser also told a story it was entitled "Henry the Helicopter."

Pupil Notes Birthday

By PHYLLIS SMITH
In Mrs. Mary O'Firing's room, Bobby Freese had a birthday on Monday. He was 7 years old.

Mrs. Firing has put pictures of nursery rhymes around the blackboard in the front of the room. The children are going to review the nursery rhymes.

The pupils enjoyed an arithmetic television program.

The atmosphere absorbed by sea water contains a larger proportion of oxygen than that above the water.

Birthday Party Brings Girl Wide Array of Presents

In Mrs. Wanner's room, Marilyn Shaner had a birthday party. Bonnie Smith, Antoinette and Junior Sieber were there. The children stayed for dinner and they had chicken, ice cream, and cake.

Marilyn got a nurse's set, a story book, pick up sticks, chalks gloves, pajamas, dress, bubble bath, coloring book and a ring with a yellow stone in it. They played bingo, pin the tail on the donkey, doctors, and pick up sticks.

The second grade is studying about the Pilgrims. They made a frieze showing life of the Indians and life of the Pilgrims and eating their first Thanksgiving together.

Girl Seeks Medicine, Finds Man Tied Up

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 27 (AP)—A 6-year-old girl walked into a drug store today to buy some cough medicine for her mother.

Seeing no one about, Sherry Ann Neal called out:

"Mr. Sam, where are you?"

"I'm here," answered Sam Brenner, 59-year-old owner of the store. "I was held up."

Brenner was lying back of a counter, his feet bound together with shoe laces the robbers had taken from his own stock.

Brenner told the girl to get help and she ran back to her parents, waiting for her in the family car.

Her father, Lloyd Neal, freed Brenner, while her mother telephoned the police.

Brenner said the two robbers made off with about $500 and some checks amounting to $70.

As the Neal family drove away to continue a Thanksgiving trip to Omaha, Neb., Brenner remarked: "You know, they never did get that cough syrup."

Vegetarians Pitch Into Soy Bean Roast

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—Three hundred and fifty members of the Vegetarian Society of New York sat down to Thanksgiving dinner at the Empire hotel today, tugged at their waistcoats—and plunged in to a soy bean roast.

Speakers included Dr. Robert Anderson, hailed as a leading converter to vegetarianism.

"Man is a vulture; man is a slayer," he declared. "Let us on this day be thankful that we individually are supporting life instead of death."

Also on the turkey spurner's
22nd annual dinner menu were:

Fruit salad; celery and olives;
combination salad of parsley, water cress, grated beets and carrots, cucubers, radishes and scallions;
baked potatoes and yams; vegetable soup; whole wheat, pumpkin pie and apple pie; mint tea; vegetable coffee and buttermilk.

Man His Own Boss; Is Making Out Well

BRACKENRIDGE, Tex., Nov. 27
(AP)—Tired of nosing the grindstone?
Do you have a hankering to tell the boss "I won't be down this morning. Nor tomorrow either, or ever!"

One way out is that taken by Dale Hitchcock, a bareheaded, bespectacled Breckenridge man.
Dale is manager of Hitchcock enterprises.

Now Dale will tell you Hitchcock enterprises is made up of himself, his wife Pauline, and their 14-year-old son, Neill.

"We just work when we want to, and really don't have any regular hours," says the 41-year-old Breckenridge man.

What does Hitchcock enterprises do? Well, sells water for one thing, at 5 cents a gallon. Pure water from a well. Dale has sold as much as 64 thousand gallons a month.
That's a gross of $3200.

He also teaches—and calls—square dancing. Pauline is better on teaching grace, poise. It's fun.
It's also profitable. Square dance callers get as much as $100 a night.

Winnie Judd Breaks Out of Hospital For 6th Time; Sawed Hole in Screen

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 27 (AP)—Winnie Ruth Judd, the mad murderer, broke out of the State hospital for the insane tonight for the sixth time.

She fled through a hole sawed in a heavy mesh screen on a ward window, and vanished into the chill night.

The 48-year-old red-haired trunk killer of 21 years ago chose a quiet Thanksgiving Day evening to slip away.

"We're quite sure she had inside help," said Dr. M. W. Conway, hospital superintendent.

OF LATE Mrs. Judd had been "solemn and quiet," critical and bitter," Dr. Conway said.

During the day she visited her aged mother, Mrs. H. J. McKinnell, who also is a patient in the hospital. Then she ate a turkey dinner with other patients.

Dr. Conway said that about 9:30 p. m. Pottstown time Mrs. Judd complained of a headache and announced she was going to take a bath.

Carrying a robe, she went into a bathroom and started water running into the tub. Dr. Conway said he was told. A few minutes later an attendant peeked into the room and found her gone.

Dr. Conway said a 15-inch square hole had been cut in the screen and a window rolled outward.

He expressed the opinion Mrs. Judd had obtained a window crank and concealed it in the pocket of her robe.

"FIFTEEN SQUARE INCHES of screen appeared to have been sawed out and it was an expert job," Dr. Conway said. "It wasn't something she did tonight."

The sawing appeared to have been camouflaged with bits of chewing gum. No tools were found.

Hospital attendants and sheriff's deputies started a search of the dark hospital grounds which are surrounded by 9-foot fence.

Sheriff's Lt. Frank Mitchell took over direction of the search after a quick survey of the situation, he said.

"She definitely had help. Someone with enough strength to lift her must have helped her to the ground as she came out of the window. The hole in the screen was so small

Briton Is Convicted Of Killing Burglar

MAIDSTONE, Eng., Nov. 27 (AP)—A Briton was convicted today of manslaughter for killing a known burglar with a booby trap in broad daylight and the judge turned him loose. If the killing had happened at night there wouldn't have been even a conviction.

The defendant, Sidney Taylor, 42, a mechanic, pleaded innocent. He said his home had been robbed three times while he had to be away at work. In consequence, he added, he rigged two shotgun shells to explode when his old tin trunk was opened. The device went off and killed Noah Eastwood. The prosecution conceded that Eastwood was a known thief but pointed out that booby traps for burglars are legal in Britain only between sundown and dawn.

Taylor said he had meant only to pepper any prospective thief's legs, but the prosecutor pointed out that anyone opening the trunk would have to kneel. Eastwood received the charges in his stomach.

SHIPS COLLIDE

HAMBURG, Germany, Nov. 27 (AP)—Four ships including an American tanker collided today in the fog-bound Elbe river estuary, but shipping authorities said no major damage was reported.

Thanksgiving Is Day Of Woe for Family

HAMMOND, Ind., Nov. 27 (AP)—Thanksgiving comes but once a year but that's often enough for the Clyde Blines family.

A year ago Blines, a 41-year-old oil worker, was in an automobile accident in which he suffered a spinal injury from which he has never fully recovered.

This Thanksgiving he, his wife and two sons spent the holiday in a hospital after narrowly escaping death by asphyxiation from coal gas in their home in suburban Lange said today there is no truth in Russian allegations that the United States is pressing for military bases on Norwegian territory.

saved the family from death after a flue pipe from a coal furnace became disconnected.

The oldest son, Homer, 21, awakened ill just before daybreak. He got up but fell unconscious and the noise awakened his father.

The father, coughing and choking, was barely able to knock the receiver from the telephone and call for help before he, too, fell unconscious.

A telephone operator heard the call and notified police.

ALLEGATIONS DENIED

OSLO, Norway, Nov. 27 (AP)—Foreign Minister Halvard M. Lange said today there is no truth in Russian allegations that the United States is pressing for military bases on Norwegian territory.

The Right 'Bait' for Cameraman

Peter Hartland never did get a nibble from the fish during a recent visit to the beach at Melbourne, Australia, but he did manage to hook a passing cameraman who snapped at the chance to photograph the youthful Huck Finn. French Air Strikes Hit Reds Hard As Struggle for Indo-China Rages

HANOI, Indo-China, Nov. 27 (AP)—French fighters and bombers carried the war to the Communist-led Vietminh today on two fronts — around menaced Na San in the northwest and within the French-held Red river delta.

The French command has been expecting a heavy assault by 18,000 rebels encircling a French union garrison of perhaps 10,000 at Na San, an air base in the mountains 117 miles west of Hanoi, but ground action overnight was limited to light, probing attacks.

The French, well dug-in and supplied by airlift from Hanoi, believe the Vietminh has been seriously hurt by relentless air attacks. A spokesman said French fighter planes, striking targets on the basis of information supplied by a prisoner, destroyed a Vietminh regimental command post less than two miles from Na San. Vietminh mortar crews drew heavy bombing and strafing.

Warplanes from the French aircraft carrier Arronanches dropped 400-pound bombs on rebel supply columns moving toward the town along Colonial highway 41. Others attacked primary enemy supply routes in the upper Red river area.

IN THE Delta action, a battalion of Vietminh troops which had moved between the Day river and Ninh Binh, 55 miles southeast of Hanoi, was broken up by Napalm bombing and gunfire from French bombers and fighters.

The French High command said the initial action caused the enemy to scatter into limestone hills, where the bombers dropped further cargoes of Napalm, burning jellied gasoline. The French believed the casualties to be heavy, but lacked a specific estimate.

A new mopup operation was launched in the Septpagodes sector northeast of Haiduong, about 32 miles east of Hanoi. The Vietminh has had a battalion or more in operation there, frequently ambushing French troops.

The Vietminh is generally expected to put new emphasis on harassing operations in the delta, now that the showdown battle is near for control of Na San — the key to much northwest Indo-China.

HOLIDAY NOTED IN DEEDS, WORDS ACROSS AMERICA

Most Precious Gifts Of Life, Time, Youth Given in Korea

By The Associated Press
Each in his own way, Americans gave thanks yesterday (Thursday). They did so by deed as much as word.

Thousands performed the hardest deed in the bleak Korean hills. They showed their thanks for the American way of life by giving their most precious gifts—life and time and youth.

Because they were there and because many other Americans were gathered on the remote fringes of Asia and along the eastern approaches to Europe, millions stayed home in peace.

HERE AT HOME, as well as abroad, the turkey was king. The big American bird, symbol of plenty, filled dinner plates across the nation.

In many a home the day went something like this:

Mother was up early to get that bird in the oven. Father was up earlier than he wanted to be to keep the kids out of the kitchen. Church doors were open in all neighborhoods to those who desired formal worship.

Many High schools and colleges topped off their football seasons with Thanksgiving games. Radios and television sets brought some games to armchair enthusiasts.

Big parades played up the holiday spirit in many communities.

In New York, for example, an estimated 2,250,000 youngsters and adults gaped at the gigantic floats and balloons featured in the annual Macy department store Thanksgiving parade.

Relatives and friends, invited to other homes for dinner, crowded highways in heavily populated areas.

IT WAS a white Thanksgiving in some sections of the country, with snow blanketing many areas of the Midwest.

While it was a home day, the homeless were not forgotten. Institutions everywhere opened their doors to the destitute.

Abroad, as well as at home, Americans gathered at table to celebrate in traditional style.

Even up to the front lines of Korea the services did their best to give men a real home dinner—from shrimp cocktail through turkey to nuts and hot coffee. And that was the menu for American servicemen in Europe and at all stations and ships at sea around the world.

There was, altogether, not much new about the day. It was in fact, the carrying out of an old tradition.

Traffic Lights Stuck One Hour on Amber

Motorists exposed to traffic lights at High and Hanover streets early this morning were muttering "forever amber."

For approximately an hour lights stuck on amber and red. The confusion ended when police set the light on blinking yellow along High street and blinking red along Hanover street.

Police called Electrician John W. Snyder and requested the light mechanism be checked before heavy morning traffic rolls through the intersection.

Snyder was hired to handle thorough electrical work when William H. Price, veteran borough electrician retired several months ago.

US Jewish Leader Repudiates Czechs

PARIS, Nov. 27 (AP)—An American Jewish leader said tonight that none of the former Communist leaders in Czechoslovakia sentenced in Prague today "ever was associated with the Jewish cause."

Zachariah Schuster, European director of the American Jewish committee, told a news conference that none of the Czech defendants "had entered Jewish communal, social, or cultural life." Eleven of the 14 tried were Jews, and eight of the 11 sentenced to death were Jews.

Schuster said the "monstrosity of the trial" was to accuse any of the defendants with being associated in any way with Zionism or Israel. He was careful to refer to the defendants as being only "of Jewish parents," since he maintained they had never taken part in the Jewish community's activities.

About 125 employees will be granted the pay increase.

A contract providing for an increase of about 20 cents an hour for employees of Pottstown Machine company was ratified this week but the wage increase will not go into effect until approved by the WSB. If granted, the increase will be retroactive to Nov. 1.

Other provisions of the new contract recently negotiated by union and management provides for improvements in the vacation and insurance clauses and in giving greater emphasis on seniority of employees.

'US Is Best Place,' Woman Finds on Trip

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 27 (AP)—Although Mrs. Apollonia Vigliano has been away from her home town in Italy for 60 years, she found on a recent visit that the tiny village of Guardiapericara had changed but little in all that time.

A few modern houses, some running water and a little electricity were the only noticeable differences in the small hilltop town in Southern Italy, she said. The 75-year-old woman made the trip with two relatives to see her 91-year-old sister who, she said, recognized her right away in spite of the long absence.

Most of the town's population wants to come to America, but Mrs. Vigliano says she doesn't want to return to Italy. "America is the best place," she said.

Brazilian Government Banks on Coffee Business

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—Dependence of Brazil's economy on a one-crop export—coffee—is illustrated by figures for the first half of 1952, reported by the Brazilian Government Trade Bureau here.

During the first six months, coffee accounted for 69.4 percent of total export volume with a value of $487,820,833. The next highest single export item was raw cotton, which accounted for only 3.6 percent of total export trade with a value of $25,204,725.

Paul Feight, 350 Lincoln avenue, will be alternate to the co-chairman.

Shaw is general chairman of the local committee on arrangements. Members are Mrs. Roy N. a. c. chairman, housing sub-committee; William Mills, Mrs. George Weber, Rigg, Dr. Krouse, Lawrence Melzer, the Rev. Thomas Winn and Robert A. Reis.

Philippines Government To Convert Old Prison

MANILA, Nov. 27 (AP)—The Philippines government will convert historic Ft. Santiago—hell-hole prison for many Filipino martyrs and heroes during the Spanish and Japanese regimes—into a national shrine.

President Elpidio Quirino has created a committee for the rehabilitation of the old fort, which was virtually razed during the battle of Manila in 1945.

Search Plane Seeks Missing Transport

Rugged, mountainous country in which unidentified airplane wreckage was sighted is shown in this photo made during search for an Air Force transport plane missing since Nov. 22 with 52 persons. The search plane is a SB-17 from Tenth Air Rescue Group based at Elmendorf Air Force Base at Anchorage, Alaska.

Meteor Alarm Alerts Coast Guard Twice

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27 (AP)—A bright flash in the northwest sky—believed to be a meteor—tonight sent Coast Guardsmen on two futile hunts for "distress flares."

The Coast Guard rescue coordination center here received its first report—shortly after 8 p. m.—from a tower guard at Alcatraz prison, who said he saw a flash over the north end of San Francisco bay.

An 83-foot patrol boat dispatched to the area found nothing.

A short time later, the Coast Guard station at Ft. Bragg, 150 miles up the northern California coast, sent out a beach party after residents said they saw "a reddish-white glow" in the sky offshore.

The beach party likewise found nothing.

The flash was also seen at Fairfield, 45 miles northeast of here, by Solano county Deputy Sheriff L. D. Richey, who said it came from a meteor that first showed red, then burned out in a bright white light arching through the sky to the northwest.

Vandalism Is Increasing, School Official Reveals

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 27 (AP)—Vandalism and break-ins in public schools are increasing year by year, says a school official here.

City School Superintendent Omer Carmichael says there were 18 break-ins in city schools in September. In the year ending June, 1952, 262 break-ins occurred with damage amounting to $4224. He also stated that 2404 panes of glass were broken by vandals at 40 schools in the city during Summer vacation.

License Requirements Nil in South Dakota

SOUTHBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 27 (AP)—South Dakota is the only State that requires no examination, issues no license and sets no legal standard for automobile drivers, according to the 1952 edition of a survey of State requirements for motor vehicle operators. All that is required is that the driver be at least 15.

The survey, published by the American Optical company, says that all other States require licenses and have driver examinations. Age requirements for drivers range from 14 in Arkansas, Idaho, New Mexico, North Dakota, South Carolina and Texas to a high of 17 in New Jersey.

'Captive Boy' Enjoys Happy Thanksgiving Day

BOSTON, Nov. 27 (AP)—Gerald F. Sullivan, the "captive boy" hidden by his mother for some 12 years to conceal his illegitimacy, today enjoyed a happy Thanksgiving Day.

Sullivan, found wandering on the street barefooted and wearing long curls and girl's ragged clothing in 1949, spent the day at the home of his attorney, Daniel O'Connell.

Now 17, nearly six feet tall and weighing about 140 pounds, the youth dines monthly with O'Connell and his wife, whom he calls "mother."

About a third of the earth's surface is covered by the Pacific Ocean.

The bull, which was dehorned, had knocked the youth against the barn's stone wall, then trampled him.

Occupants of Tavern Are Locked in Room

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 27 (AP)—Tavern occupants here thought they were collectively starting to see things as bad as pink elephants when thieves locked them in a rest room after relieving them of $300 to $400.

But after a few excited minutes of conjecture they agreed that the thieves all were dressed in striped overalls.

Outlook Bleak to Korean Lookouts

Pottstown Amvets Set Grand Opening Date

Amvets Post 23 will hold the grand opening of its remodeled headquarters at 260 High street Dec. 19 to 21.

At a meeting of the club this week, Carl "Mush" Bechtel, chairman of the committee in charge of the alterations, reported $3000 worth of improvements have been completed.

The cost would have been greater if the members did not do all the work themselves, he said. Volunteers began working on a new hardwood dance floor, asphalt tile on the rest of the floor and a new bar the past September.

The auxiliary will give a Christmas party for children of Amvets members on Dec. 12 at 7 p. m. Mrs. Paul H. Lysoby, president of the auxiliary, is planning the party.

CHURCH DEDICATED

CINCINNATI, Nov. 27 (AP)—Presbyterians and Episcopalians today dedicated a new church in suburban Indian Hill which they said is the first to be built in this country by combined congregations of the two denominations.

Ramshackle House Yields Eerie Secret; Skeleton Is Found

DETROIT, Nov. 27 (AP)—A ramshackle old house in Detroit's eastern market district yielded its eerie secret today.

Police broke down tightly locked doors and found the skeleton of Mrs. Emily Lemersahl, 87, under a sheet in an upstairs bedroom.

In another room police found Stanley Lemersahl, 48, a son, writhing on a bed mortally wounded from a self-inflicted bullet wound. He shot himself as police broke down the door.

Before he died at a hospital, Lemersahl told police his mother had died of natural causes two years ago and her body had been left undisturbed because there was no money to bury her. He gave no reason for his suicide.

Detective Inspector Edward Eggers and Detective Sgt. John Morin gave this account of the bizarre discovery.

Lemersahl, and another brother, Russell, 50, occupied the seven-room, trash-littered house. Neighbors said both men were heavy drinkers. Three hundred empty bottles of wine and bay rum besides canned heat were strewn about the place.

RUSSELL LEMERSAHL was held for investigation in concealing information about his mother's death.

Police raided the house after Howard Schumann, 53, a nephew of Mrs. Lemersahl, reported his suspicions. Schumann said he had made repeated calls at the house and always found it tightly locked. Neighbors also told police they felt there was something wrong.

Russell Lemersahl told police he and his brother had gone into their mother's bedroom only two or three times since she died. "Stanley and I," he said, "hoped to get money together to pay mother's funeral expenses, but we never had enough."

Mau Mau Critic Is Hacked to Death; 12 Tribesmen Are Held

NAIROBI, Kenya, Nov. 27 (AP)—Police today found the mutilated body of an African-nominated member of the Nairobi's City council who had recently condemned the anti-white terroristic Mau Mau society. The council member, Tom Mbatia, was hacked to death, and his body left near the African market place, police said. He recently criticized Mau Mau and in the attack at Bowyer's house.

urged Africans to achieve progress by constitutional methods.

This latest act of violence in a prolonged campaign against whites and their non-European supporters in this British East African colony came as the Kenya government launched a new security plan. The plan was recommended by Sir Percy Sillitoe, Britain's security chief, and was adopted by the colonial legislative council.

Twelve members of the Kikuyu tribe, from which Mau Mau recruits its knifemen, were ordered tried for murder in connection with the death of Eric Bowyer, a farmer, a month ago. One of the accused said he had been forced under threat of death to take part in the attack at Bowyer's house.

Employees Donate Pay To Bereaved Family

ZELIENOPLE, Nov. 27 (AP)—Thanksgiving Day dinners for some 100 families in this Butler county town were delayed today but when the holiday fare finally was served, a true Thanksgiving spirit pervaded every home.

That's because the employees of the Halstead and Mitchell company worked for nothing today and donated their pay to the family of Earl Lambert, a fellow worker who suffered a tragic fire the past Sunday.

Two of the Lamberts' nine children burned to death. Two other children and the parents were burned seriously in the fire which demolished the family's tiny home.

It's hard to understand why there are so many frowns on the faces of these first graders at the Lincoln school while teacher, Gloria Spatziani smiles so broadly. But we have an idea these kids don't like posing with the sun in their eyes. Left to right in the first row they are Malcolm Jackson, Kandy Kiss, Charles Hunter, Richard Rusinski, Darwin Pence, Jay Astheimer, Allison Hartman, Paul Batman, Sandra Freese, Charles Rimel and Dorothy Neiffer. Row two, left to right, shows Dennis Rayson, Gary Baer, Calvin Miller, Patricia Thomas, Bonita Ziegler, Harry Bradley, Donna Keiffer, Charles Gulotta and Ray Sweetwood. In the same order, row three includes Stephen Hatfield, Cheryl Ludolph, Michael Perate, Diane Yoder, Roy Gebhard, Lynn Yeager and Betty Lou Miller. Left to right in the fourth row are Dawn Stichter, Roland Mentzer, William Keeley, Randall Van Horn, and Shirley Missimer.

Labor Priest Leaves Pittsburgh Diocese

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 27 (AP)—Father Charles Owen Rice, known for years as "Pittsburgh's Labor Priest" because of his interest in labor, today said goodbye to St. Joseph's House of Hospitality he has operated since 1937.

Several hundred homeless men ate their holiday turkey dinners at the house which Father Rice is leaving next week. He has been transferred to a diocese at nearby Natrona but the Hospitality house will be operated by the St. Vincent de Paul society.

Since the hospitality house began feeding the poor and caring for the homeless in the depression days it has served more than four million free meals and given more than one million nights of free shelter.

Father Rice, a close friend of Philip Murray, CIO president who died recently, will give the invocation at the memorial services to be held for Murray at the CIO convention at Atlantic City next week.

Friend Says Eisenhower To Keep Public Informed

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 27 (AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower plans to keep the people informed on what their Government is doing by making personal reports to them, Leonard V. Finder, of St. Louis said today.

The St. Louisan quoted the General as saying the Republican party now has the job of performance; that the election was a matter of faith and that that faith must be maintained.

Party of Hunters Find Skeleton in Wooded Area

BERLIN, N. J., Nov. 27 (AP)—A party of hunters found the skeleton of a young man or woman today in a wooded section about three miles west of here.

Camden county Coroner John A. Healy said no indication of the cause of death was found. The skeleton, which Healy said had lain there about a year, was judged to be of a young person, about five feet six inches, 135 pounds, and blond-haired.

Searching the surrounding area, detectives found a man's work shirt, a pair of trousers and a sleeveless jacket. The clothing was sent to the State police laboratory at Trenton, and the skeleton to scientists at the University of Pennsylvania.

Allied Artillery Blasts Top American Officials Say Russia May Step Up Cold War Around Berlin

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 (AP)—Top American officials said today Russia may step up the cold war around Berlin to offset West Germany's expected approval of membership in the proposed European Defense Army.

This worry coincides with Western intelligence reports that Russia has nearly doubled the size of the East German Communist "police force" in the past five months.

Nearly 100,000 East Germans are now mobilized in Russian-style uniforms, officials said, with every indication that more are to be added.

Russian military equipment for this force includes small arms, machine guns, mortars, and anti-tank guns. Reliable reports, however, indicate Moscow is planning to add artillery, howitzers and tanks in the near future.

MOST OFFICIALS believe Moscow at this time will not use force to drive the West from Berlin. Nor do they foresee any outright blockade of the Western zones such as occurred in the Spring of 1948.

But responsible officials told a reporter it is entirely possible the East German Communists, under Russian direction, may step up their existing campaign of harassment.

Rail, road and barge traffic into the Western zones, they said, might be suspended periodically and new and irritating restrictions clamped on and off.

The United States, Britain and France stand firm in the city, they added, and will not be

Gen. James A. Van Fleet and his wife had turkey with the Fifth Regimental Combat team. The US Eighth Army leader, commanded the regiment's Second battalion 20 years ago.

The couple also chatted with wounded men, cheering those spending Thanksgiving in pain.

FOR GENERALS and privates alike, the Thanksgiving menu was turkey and all the traditional trimmings.

ALLIED GUNNERS were ready, however, despite the fact that this was a traditional American holiday and they were full of turkey.

Allied artillery and mortar fire crashed among the Chinese and they scattered.

The remainder of the 155-mile front was relatively quiet Thanksgiving Day, although patrols and raiders were out as usual for the dirty, bloody business of looking for prisoners and information.

The rain poured down as infantrymen ate their turkey and trimmings in foxholes and bunkers along the front.

People are reading more newspapers than ever before in history

3,000 YEARS AGO the front-page news was heavy, mainly because the tablets were of stone.

BEFORE COLUMBUS SAILED, people discovered a new world when Gutenberg invented printing.

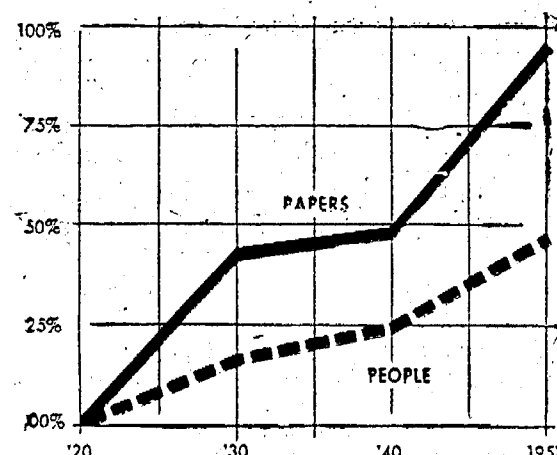

WHEN FREEDOM FOUGHT for a foothold in colonial days, one of its weapons was the newspaper.

GENTLEMEN PREFERRED NEWSPAPERS in the Jazz Age. Even though infant radio squalled so lustily.

NEWEST THING on the scene is TV, which means even more for people to read about—in newspapers.

CIRCULATION OF NEWSPAPERS in the U. S. has grown twice as fast as population. In 1920 the population was 106 million; today it's 155 million—up 47%. In 1920 weekday newspaper circulation was 28 million; today it's 54 million—up 94%!

Today people are reading more newspapers than ever before.

A survey of TV's effect on family life, called "Videotown 1952", conducted by Cunningham & Walsh, Inc., the well-known advertising agency, says:

"Newspaper reading is just about the only regular activity which showed no change after the advent of TV."

This survey shows that among families with TV, just as many people read newspapers today as in the days before TV.

And that's not all: It shows that they spend just as much time with the newspaper as in the days before TV!

The newspaper is a medium that grows stronger and stronger as people gain more and more interests in the world around them.

And ads in The Mercury are more effective. Because they reach more than 21,000 families daily—more people than any other medium. Because Mercury advertising has an urgency—a brass-tacks... local... down-to-earth quality that no other medium can match.

The Mercury is always "first with the most"

California Couple, Child, 2, Suffocate On Eve of Holiday

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 27 (AP)—The turkey was prepared for roasting. The stuffing was ready in a pan. Cranberry sauce and olives were in the icebox.

But there was no Thanksgiving feast today in the home of Rudolfo Martinez.

Martinez, 40, his wife, Felicia, 42, and a 2-year-old child they were caring for, Rosa Linda Cobos, were found dead in their beds.

The coroner said fumes from a gas heater suffocated them while they slept in a tightly closed room.

MARTINEZ' SON-in-law, Carlos Martinez, 20, a punch press operator, told police of the tragedy in the family's little frame house.

Speaking from a hospital bed, through an oxygen mask clamped over his face, he said he and his family had been living with his wife's parents. So had Rosa Linda, whose parents are divorced.

"We went to bed at 1 a. m. after watching television," he said. "My wife was first to wake up. She said she had a headache and began vomiting."

"I NOTICED the heater was still on in our room and I smelled gas."

I went into my father-in-law's room and tried to wake him, but I couldn't. Then I tried to wake up Felicia. I saw she was gone, and so was the little girl. The heater in their room was burning, too."

Hearing Is Set for Man On Conduct Charges

Frank Levegood, Warwick Settlement, will be given a hearing tonight on charges of drunk and disorderly conduct before North Coventry Justice of the Peace Ralph W. Ralston.

Levegood was arrested at his home yesterday at 7:42 p. m. by North Coventry Police Chief Daniel W. Guldin. The accused man was committed to the borough lock-up overnight.

Fire department officials said they expect the fire to continue for several days.

Buenos Aires Market Threatened by Fire

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Nov. 27 (AP)—A ravaging fire threatened to destroy the central wholesale produce market in Buenos Aires tonight.

The fire started in a vast underground deposit where thousands of empty wooden crates were stored. A hundred firemen, six of whom were injured, failed to get close to the flames.

Smoke filtered into a subway station opposite the market and panicky passengers had to be helped out. Traffic in the subway was cut.

Fire department officials said they expect the fire to continue for several days.

Train Hurls Man Into Crowd; 2 Killed

CONCORD, N. C., Nov. 27 (AP)—A Southern railway passenger train struck a man and hurled his body into a crowd of people with such force tonight that one other person was killed and three injured.

Dead in the weird accident were Walter Wilson Nance, 43, of Route 2, Marshville, and Mrs. Estelle Boone, about 38, of Norwood, Route 1. Injured were Charles E. Ellington, Concord Route 3; Miss Ann Tucker, Mt. Pleasant, and Mrs. Minnie Love, Harrisburg.

Coroner Cliff Brown gave this version of the accident: Nance, an employee of a cotton mill here, attempted to cross double tracks at the McGill street crossing. He was watching for a north-bound freight and failed to see a southbound passenger train. He was hit by the passenger train and his body thrown about 25 feet into a group of people waiting to cross the tracks.

VIOLET SELLER BURIED

LONDON, Nov. 27 (AP)—Emma ("Lovely Violets") Baker, a 60-year-old veteran of flower vending in Piccadilly Circus, was buried today. She died at 78 but the cry of "violet, lovely violets" is being taken over by her daughter.

The wisent, the European cousin to the American bison, lives on leaves and twigs while the bison is a grazing animal.

Sacristy Is Ransacked And Treasures Stolen

PUEBLA, Mexico, Nov. 27 (AP)—Thieves ransacked the main altar and sacristy of the Church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart here and stole religious treasures valued at 500,000 pesos ($58,150), church officials reported today.

Among the missing objects were a crown valued at $11,600, a necklace of pearls and precious stones worth $9300, and a gold chalice formerly owned by Pope Pius XI.

The image of the Virgin Mary, which had been brought from Rome, was smashed at the foot of the main altar. Jewelry placed on the image by devout worshippers also was missing.

FULL SUPPORT OF INDIA PLAN IS GIVEN BY US

Overwhelming Approval Assured Despite Soviet Bloc

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Nov. 27 (AP)—The United States threw its full support today behind a much-amended Indian compromise truce plan for Korea. This assured its overwhelming approval by the UN Political committee despite repeated objections from the Soviet bloc.

The committee plunged ahead in final debate on the Indian program for Korea although every other UN committee observed the US Thanksgiving holiday.

Committee Chairman Joao Carlos Muniz, Brazil, and other leaders pointed out that UN soldiers were fighting during the holiday and the diplomats had an obligation to do everything possible here and vote as soon as the talk stopped.

The committee adjourned at 5:50 p. m. until 3 p. m. tomorrow after hearing another Russian warning that the Indian plan is "rotten" and will not "yield a good result." Muniz hopes for a vote tomorrow after hearing a final answer from the Indian delegate to all arguments against his resolution.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson, who passed the day working as usual and who attended the committee meeting, let it be known through a delegation spokesman that the US accepts the last major change made by V. K. Krishna Menon of India.

Acheson's position today was in sharp contrast to the attitude of the delegation ten days ago when Menon first put up his plan. At that time the delegation ticked off a long list of objections. Most of them have since been ironed out in numerous conferences although the Menon plan at one time split the US and Britain.

The spokesman said Menon removed the last obstacle to American agreement last night when he changed his resolution to provide that prisoners not disposed of by a repatriation commission or a political conference on Korea within five months should be turned over to the UN for final disposition.

Patients Are Calm After Fire; Officials Building Debate Held

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 27 (AP)—The mentally ill were "surprisingly calm" during the Thanksgiving program at Huntington State hospital today while State officials debated why an old building in which 14 patients died last night hadn't been fireproofed.

The 14 were among 275 patients, all females, in the 56-year-old building swept by fire.

"A recommendation was made to spend one million dollars to fireproof" the building at the last legislative session nearly two years ago, Joe F. Burdett, president of the board of control said.

"I don't want to blame anyone, but in the process from the budget director to the legislature it was dropped."

RUSH D. HOLT, unsuccessful Republican candidate for governor Nov. 4 declared "the Legislature provided every cent the State Board of Public Works asked for the hospital."

"The responsibility for this tragedy is at the top. The board of public works and the State administration cannot escape the finger of guilt."

CIO Leaders Deadlocked in Choice Of President, to Meet for More Talks

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 (AP)—CIO leaders were reported still deadlocked today in their attempt to select a new president without an open and public fight which might leave lasting scars.

More than 700 delegates to the 14th CIO convention were headed for Atlantic City and the crucial showdown on the question of succession. Walter P. Reuther, head of the million-plus auto workers, and Allan S. Haywood, supported by the equally large steel workers union, were the only avowed contenders for the job left vacant Nov. 9 when Philip Murray died.

The convention officially starts Monday morning but tomorrow afternoon top CIO leaders, including nine vice presidents and Secretary-Treasurer James B. Carey, meet in executive session to continue talks started earlier this week in New York on the presidency question.

There were recurrent reports that Reuther, the red-haired, 45-year-old auto worker chief, would be willing to carry his fight for the top CIO job to the floor of the convention only if he thought he had at least a better than even chance of winning it. Lack of any evidence that Reuther was shying away from a floor fight indicated optimism in the minds of his supporters.

BUT THERE was no indication that the steel workers union, the bulk of Haywood's strength, was weakening. Also lined up behind Haywood were reported to be a number of small unions.

Should the issue erupt on the convention floor—probably not before the middle of next week—it would have to be settled by a rollcall vote. Never

Spokesmen for Press Radio, TV Invited To Election Study

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 (AP)—Spokesmen for the Republican and Democratic national committees and for the press, radio and television industries have been invited to testify next week in a congressional study of the nation's "antiquated" election laws.

The investigation will get underway Monday and will be conducted by a special House committee headed by Rep. Boggs (D-La.). A similar committee functions each election year, its job being to study campaign expenditures and the adequacy of election laws.

After this year's hearings, Boggs said, the committee expects to make "sound and constructive recommendations" for changes in what he called "antiquated" election statutes.

Boggs declared in a statement that since the present laws were passed, the use of radio and television in campaigns has become firmly established.

US Consulate Ordered To Vacate 2 Buildings

ACCRA, the Gold Coast, Nov. 27 (AP)—A high court of justice today ordered the US consulate at Accra to vacate two of three buildings it occupies here.

The court upheld the action of George Bikhazi, a Syrian merchant who owns the buildings. He claimed the option for a three-year renewal on the premises had expired in June.

William Cole, the US consul, said his Government wanted to put up a consulate building in Accra but the Gold Coast Government had not been helpful in supplying the land.

Ruins Ransacked By Seoul Police

SEOUL, Friday, Nov. 28 (AP)—Police ransacked Seoul's ruins today for subversives and 400 Koreans already were jailed in "operation safeguard" for President-Elect Dwight D. Eisenhower's forthcoming visit.

This city of rubble swarmed with national and metropolitan police, afoot and on horseback. Plainclothesmen moved through the streets, checking identification cards of Seoul's 800,000 residents.

The South Korean Government imposed rigid censorship on stories in the Korean press, dealing with Eisenhower's visit.

Purge Court in Prague Sentences 11 Former Leaders to Die on Gallows

VIENNA, Austria, Nov. 27 (AP)—The Prague purge court today sentenced 11 former Czechoslovak Communist leaders—once trusted servants of the Kremlin—to die on the gallows as confessed traitors who led a Zionist, Trotskyite plot to overthrow their pro-Moscow Government.

Rudolf Slansky, 51-year-old ex-boss and hatchman of Czech Communism, and former Foreign Minister Vlado Clementis, 50, headed the roll of the doomed, all but three of whom are Jews.

Three Jewish co-defendants escaped with life terms. The court explained that one of these helped implicate the group and the other two were "merely links" in the purported conspiracy of treason, sabotage and espionage.

The Prague radio announced the outcome of the week's hearing, marked by virulent anti-Semitism and an obvious effort to brand the group as scapegoats for Czechoslovakia's failure to fulfill Russian orders for industrial and war supplies.

ALL 14 had confessed volubly to the charges, reciting their sins against Stalinism and President Klement Gottwald's Czech regime in a pattern that first became familiar to the Western world through the blood-letting Moscow purge trials of the 1930's.

Slansky, a Jew, was called the ringleader of the plot.

Long a powerful figure in international Communism who was sheltered by Moscow in World War II, he admitted the past week in three and a half hours of testimony broken only occasionally by prompting questions.

Sister Kenny Still In Critical Condition

SYDNEY, Australia, Friday, Nov. 28 (AP)—The condition of Sister Elizabeth Kenny, famed polio nurse, critically ill with a coronary thrombosis and pneumonia at her Queensland home, was reported unchanged today.

Physicians said late last night that they did not expect her to live longer than a few days. Her personal physician, Dr. John Ogden, said her right side was paralyzed and that she was unable to speak or recognize anyone.

The 66-year-old nurse has contracted pneumonia since she was stricken and received large doses of antibiotics yesterday, without any benefit thus far. The pulmonary infection now is affecting her heart, the attendants said.

2 MORE NAMED TO IKE'S TEAM; INDIA TALK SET

Persons Is Assistant, Hagerty Is Press Secretary

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—Two more key members of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's White House team were named today—James C. Hagerty as press secretary and retired Maj. Gen. Wilton B. Persons as a special presidential assistant.

At the same time it was announced the president-elect would confer tomorrow with India's top United Nations delegate. It was considered possible the two would discuss India's proposal for a truce in Korea.

Although Eisenhower himself spent the Thanksgiving holiday at his home, his office announced selection of the two new executive aides.

Hagerty, 43, former press secretary to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, has been serving as Eisenhower's press aide since the General's nomination.

Persons, 56, former director of the Defense department's Office of Legislative Liaison, is a long-time military associate of Eisenhower's, and served on his staff in Europe.

EXCEPT FOR THESE APPOINTMENTS, it was a quiet day at Eisenhower's Hotel Commodore headquarters compared to the bustle of conferences and consultations of the past week.

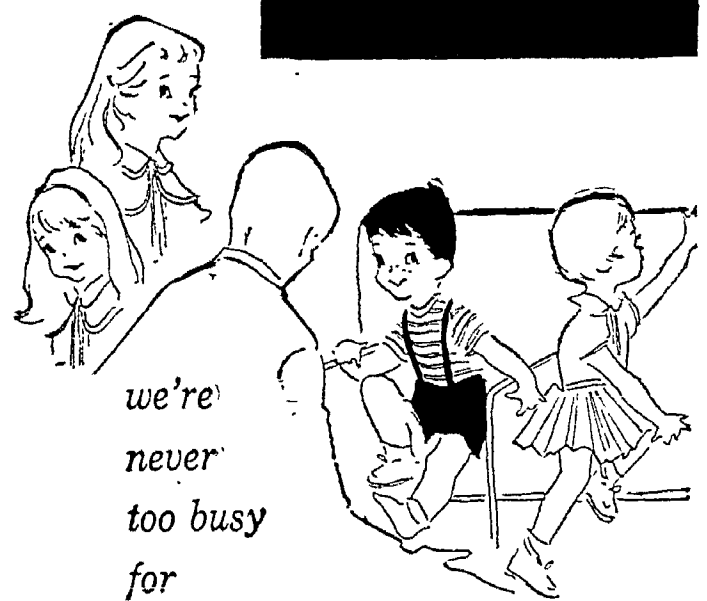

The General himself took the day off. But he faced a busy round of meetings tomorrow, starting in the morning with the session with Madame Vijayalakshmi Pandit, leader of India's UN delegation. It was likely that a prime subject of their discussions would be India's amended plan for a compromise armistice in Korea.

River Construction Presents Threat to Indian Researchers

HARRISBURG, Nov. 28 (AP)—New industry and dam construction along Pennsylvania rivers pose a threat to continued research on archeological sites, a state research expert said today.

"We're running our heads off trying to keep up with the bulldozers," John Witthoft, curator of anthropology for the State Historical and Museum Commission, told a newsman.

Industrial progress many years ago obscured or erased numerous sites for excavation of Indian relics, said Witthoft, adding that new threats continually are arising.

"We just can't devote enough time or put enough men into the field to keep up with things," he said.

RIVER VALLEYS have been rich sources for archeologically valuable items for the reason that they formed transportation lines of Indians and white settlers alike.

New threats to remaining one-time Indian sites, where much of value still may be uncovered, Witthoft said, lie in the proposed construction path of dams in the west branch Susquehanna river area and the Incocon plan for the upper Delaware river region.

PARAKEET RETURNS

lapsed into a long afternoon nap.

"He was sure lively when he woke up," Miss Gaugler said, "splashing around in the water I gave him and having a grand time."

IN THE MEANTIME, the bird's owner, Mrs. Seibert, had been notified and was overjoyed to hear that the parakeet whom she considered "one of the family" was on the way home.

"Boy, did I miss him," Mrs. Seibert exclaimed. "Every day, I would be out at 6 in the morning looking for him. Yesterday, I thought I saw him sitting on a bush near our house, and I whistled back and when I wanted to get closer to make sure it was Pete—he took off again."

Mrs. Seibert said she was going down to Miss Gaugler's early this afternoon to bring Pete home.

If you want to know how Miss Gaugler feels about her parakeet hunt, she'll tell you she was planning on baking a pumpkin pie for Thanksgiving dinner, but with all the excitement Pete provided she never had the time.

"Besides, this was a lot more fun," she said.

Before the arrival of Paul State Trooper Charles Weber, Schenck left the scene. While Weber was questioning the Spring City man, Schenck returned and won the inclusive description.

After a Phoenixville physician pronounced him unfit to operate a motor vehicle, Schenck was taken before Justice of the Peace George Ellwanger, Phoenixville, who held him for a further hearing tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Schenck was sent to Chester County prison, West Chester.

Damage to the Spring City man's car was estimated at $100; to Schenck's, $200. The Spring City man had slowed down for a car ahead.

card and not the title. He said he apparently lost the card and I asked him if he had filed an application for a new card. He said he had, but had no proof of it.

"At that time he asked me to go on as the girl in the car with him (his daughter) was to be the principal speaker at North Coventry garage."

"He suggested if I would permit him to go to the garage and deliver the passenger he would report back. I agreed if he promised to meet me at Pughtown garage."

"I went to Pughtown garage and waited approximately one hour, until 9:40 o'clock, and he hadn't showed up."

"AT APPROXIMATELY 10 o'clock he came to the garage with the title and the garage owner told him he better take the title to the justice of the peace."

"Waltz said he went to the home of the justice and all the lights were on and he knocked on two doors, but no one answered. The justice said he was at home at his desk inside the door until midnight."

Waltz claimed in court that Symons did not send out a second summons for failure to have his owners card until he (Waltz) called the justice and waived the hearing on the original summons for illegal passing and reported the case would be taken to court.

Conway explained, "Symons was holding the summons out of courtesy. He didn't have to do it at all. Usually they give a man 24 hours to produce a title. In this case Waltz got 12 days. I certainly don't consider that being tough on the man."

Waltz's counsel, Fred T. Cadmus 3d, East Nantmeal, paid the fine and costs, but the West Goshen

Dissatisfied Indian Jews Seek Return to Israel

BOMBAY, Nov. 27 (AP)—Fifty-eight of the 128 Indian Jews who returned from Israel the past August, charging racial discrimination have petitioned Prime Minister David Ben Gurion for permission to resettle in Israel.

The dark-skinned emigrants to Israel made news when they started a hunger-strike to compel Israeli authorities to send them back to India. Now they have called for financial assistance for a second attempt at integration in the Jewish homeland.

SALVAGE COMPANY RAISES BARNACLE-COVERED HULK

SINGAPORE, Nov. 27 (AP)—A salvage company has raised the barnacle and mud-covered hulk of the Japanese ship, Zenya Maru, off Singapore.

The wreck has a large hole in its side big enough to hold three 3-ton trucks, Capt. W. A. Doust, general manager of the salvage firm, said. No records exist as to how it was destroyed during the war. The ship will be broken up here and its steel used for building construction.

Pickup Truck Found Shortly After Theft

A gray pickup truck was recovered in Spring City this morning within an hour after it was reported stolen from a South Hanover street parking lot.

Nellie Ledford, 30 Reynolds avenue, was arrested by Spring City police in the 1951 truck of Edward Eckenrode, also 30 Reynolds avenue.

Eckenrode told Desk Sgt. Harold E. Hahn he was in Crummy's restaurant, 108 South Hanover street, and came out of the restaurant to get into the truck and it was missing.

He reported the theft at 12:30 o'clock. By 1:30 a. m. the truck was recovered.

ers' salaries would mean an increase in taxes. I can see no other alternative."

Yohn pointed to the heavy expenditures now resting on the board. The annex to Rupert school has been completed and will be an important item on the new budget.

THE BOARD plans to complete a new West End elementary building in the Ninth ward for the Fall term of 1953.

Plans are being prepared for the conversion of the Junior High school gymnasium into 10 classrooms. If this project is approved a new gym will be built north of the present brick building and connected to it via a tunnel.

Yohn explained the necessity for the new gym. "School officials have pointed out we may be able to carry our athletic program without running in the red each year with a much larger capacity for basketball games."

The treasurer said the board had in mind a new gym which could handle from 2400 to 3000 persons for basketball games.

In view of the money needed for these improvements, he said, an increase in taxes would be the only possible result of a boost in teacher salaries.

Some veteran Pottstown teachers have not reached the State maximum because they began teaching at low salaries a number of years ago.

The State authorized the $200 annual pay boosts for teachers in the past few years.

Some school districts in the State pay above the maximum. Norristown teachers receive salaries $400 above the maximum and Emmaus teachers are paid $500, $5400 and $5800 respectively for the three groups.

Legion Auxiliary Votes Donation For Yule Party

A total of 28 members of the Charles B. Yerger Post 471, American Legion Ladies' auxiliary, voted donations totaling $37. The first donation was in the amount of $25 to go toward the Legion Kiddles Christmas party. A $12 donation was made to a fund at Harrisburg to rehabilitate hospitalized veterans. The auxiliary will have only one meeting during next month on Dec. 9. At a Christmas party to be held on Dec. 8, gifts will be exchanged and a special Christmas program presented.

A social followed the business session with Mrs. Murrell McKinstry, Mrs. Lawrence D. Kohler and Elmira Mauger serving as hostesses.

'Homecoming Hop' Set for Tomorrow

The annual Thanksgiving dance, sponsored by the Boyertown High school staff of the 1953 Bear yearbook, will be held tomorrow night, from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock, in the High school gymnasium.

The dance this year will honor the High school alumni and is known as the "Homecoming Hop." There will be plenty of entertainment for everyone as there will be several special dances throughout the night.

The Boyertown High school dance band will furnish music for dancing and refreshments will be sold. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the "Bear" staff and will also be on sale tomorrow night.

Blood Donors Number 144; More Required

A total of 144 persons have volunteered to donate blood next Tuesday when the American Red Cross Bloodmobile unit will visit the Keystone Fire company's Rainbow room from 1 to 6:30 p. m. Mrs. Mary Hunsberger, president of the sponsoring Boyertown Post 3487, VFW Ladies' auxiliary, made the announcement last night and added that additional donors are still required to meet the goal of 200.

She said that many industries have not yet complied with the request to inform her of the number of prospective donors. Donors thus far will come from the following:

Boyertown Burial Casket company, 41; Bally Case and Cooler company, 27; Boyertown Planing mill, five; Tung-Sol Electric company, four; Campbell and Helmich, four; Boyertown company, four; Boyertown Shoe corporation, three; Merritt Lumber company, one; Penn Line company, one, and individuals, 34.

Freak 3-Car Collision 3 Miles From Boyertown Nets $475 in Damages

Approximately $475 in damages resulted from a three-car accident on Route 73, three miles east of Boyertown yesterday morning.

Jeffersonville State police investigating the mishap reported that Morris W. Mathias, 71, of Oley, Berks county, was traveling east on the highway when he swerved his car to avoid hitting a parked truck on the right side of the road.

Moving over too far left on the highway, Mathias' car was sideswiped by an automobile traveling in the opposite direction driven by Kenneth F. Schwenk, 60, Perkiomenville RD 1, who in an effort to avoid the collision struck the parked car of Irwin Nester, Jr., of Perkiomenville RD 1.

State police said there was approximately $200 damage to Mathias' car, $150 to Schwenk's, and $125 to Nester's car.

State Trooper Joseph Brennan investigated the accident.

Last of 'Big Four,' Orlando, Sinks Into Coma After Illness

ROME, Nov. 27 (AP)—Silver-haired Vittorio Emanuele Orlando, last of the "big four" who drafted the World War I peace at Versailles, sank into a coma today after suffering a heart attack. He is 92. Doctors said Orlando's condition caused serious concern.

Mrs. Carlotta Orlando-Caravelli, daughter of the Sicilian statesman, said her father became ill two or three days ago. He suffered the heart attack last night. His arm then became paralyzed.

Orlando, Italian premier in the first world war, worked with Woodrow Wilson, David Lloyd-George and Georges Clemenceau to draft the peace treaty.

BEFORE THE TREATY was completed, however, Orlando bitterly attacked the provisions concerning Italy, stalked out of the conference hall and refused to sign it.
The aged statesman, who is one week older than modern Italy, was equally vehement in opposing the terms placed upon Italy in the World War II treaty. He called it a "hard peace" and started a riot in the Constituent assembly when he described Italian steps to ratify it as "greediness for servitude."
Giuseppe Paratore, president of the Italian Senate, of which Orlando is a member by right of once being premier, visited the Orlando home today. He told news- men afterward Orlando was unconscious and that there was no hope of recovery.
Orlando received the last sacraments of the Roman Catholic church last night.

Berks County Class Awarded 3d Degree At IOOF Reception

The Third degree, final degree of a subordinate lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, was conferred Tuesday night on the sixth annual Berks county class in the Odd Fellows lodge hall, 35 East Philadelphia avenue.

The Boyertown Lodge 708 was host to the session at which the degree was conferred by the Berks county degree staff, in charge of Earl R. Leiby, Wernersville Lodge 835, county degree master. The class included members of the Hamburg, Bernville, Shillington and Boyertown lodges.

A banquet and reception for the class will be held in the Temple Fire hall on Friday, Dec. 5 at 6:30 p. m.

A school of instruction, in charge of Howard A. Dreibehlis, Hamburg lodge, followed the degree session. Assisting him with the reviews of various degrees were Lawrence K. Fryer and Allen Houck of the Boyertown lodge. Houck served as noble grand master of the degree staff. Fryer is district deputy grand master of Berks County District one.

Refreshments were served following the meeting in the basement of the Odd Fellows building.

Smoldering Fire Breaks Into Open in School

BAKER, Ore., Nov. 27 (AP)—Fire which had smoldered all week in a grade school's coal supply, broke into the open this morning while children were taking their Thanksgiving holiday.

Fire Chief Hubert Damon said it wasn't likely the children would have been in the building anyway because fumes Wednesday had made them ill and forced closure of the building.

The fumes were noticed Monday and teachers reported plants in the rooms dying. So the children were sent home and firemen decided they'd have to shovel out the 60 tons of coal. Before they started, they asked a coal company and got advice to bury dry ice in the coal. In thawing it gave off carbon dioxide, a fire extinguisher. They did that but it didn't work.

SEATS HELD

LONDON, Nov. 27 (AP)—The Labor party held on to two seats in the House of Commons in special elections today.

New Berlinville Gets Numbers for Houses

The board of supervisors of Colebrookdale township, Berks county, have established house numbers for properties in and near New Berlinville, one of two built-up areas of the township.

The other area is the village of Morystown, south of Boyertown, in which similar numbers were placed several years ago when that section received mail delivery from the Boyertown post office.

The house numbers to be assigned in the New Berlinville area will be for identification purposes since the community has its own post office.

TO SHARE ESTATE

James F. Johnson, 40 North Reading avenue, Boyertown, who died on Nov. 14 at the age of 66 years, left an estate valued at $3000 in personal property which is to be shared equally by Mary Z. Johnson and Lizzie Mae Werstler, who are the executrices.

Man Dies on His Way To Holiday Gathering

NAZARETH, Nov. 27 (AP)—A 75-year-old man died of a heart attack today while driving to a Thanksgiving Day gathering at the home of a sister.

Aaron Solt, 75, collapsed on his way to nearby Hellerstown. His auto careened off the highway, crashed through a garden fence and landed in a ditch. He was pronounced dead of a heart attack at a physician's office.

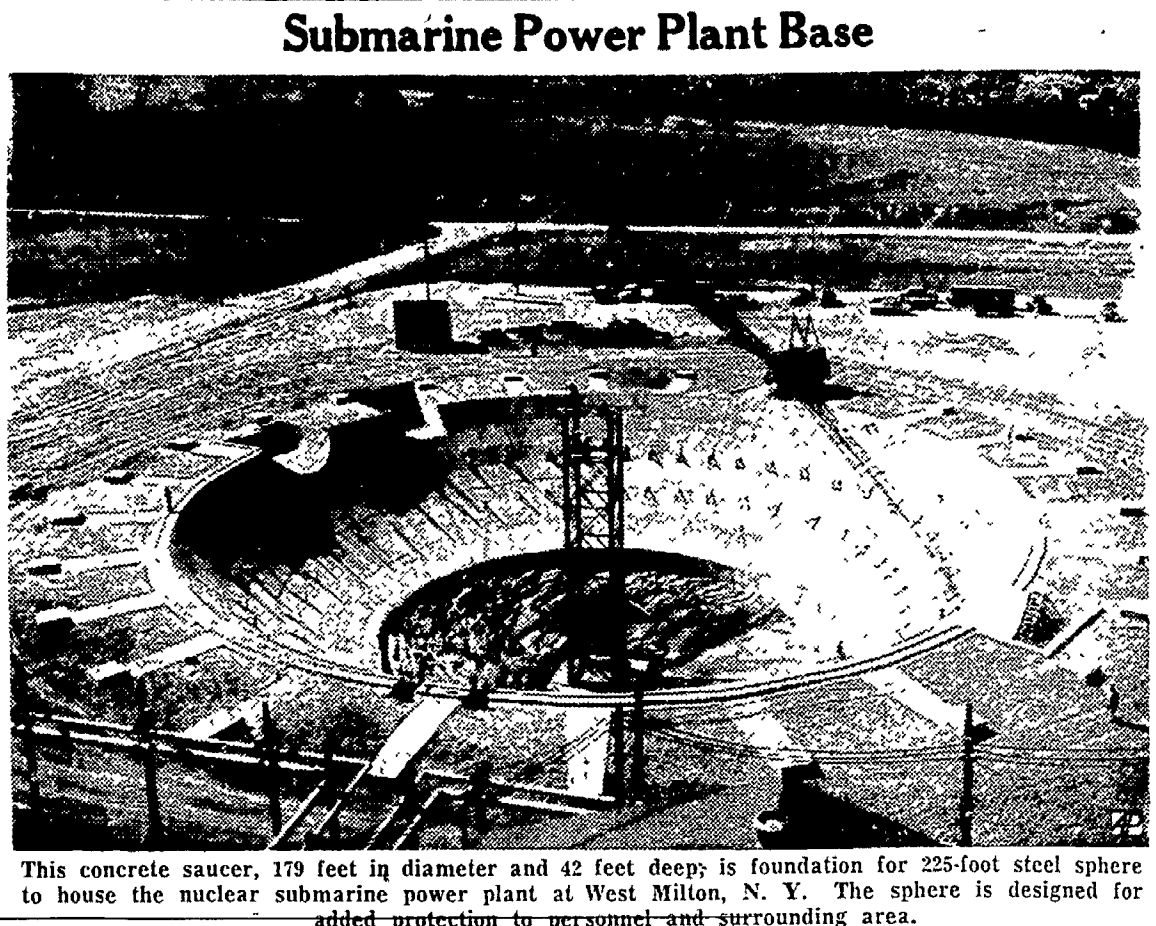

Hunger Striking Convicts Transferred to Hospital

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 27 (AP)—Eighteen convicts—all on a hunger strike—were transferred to the New Jersey State hospital here today.

State officials said the convicts were removed from the State prison after medical reports indicated they should be under 24-hour medical supervision.

The names of the convicts were not disclosed, but acting Warden Lloyd McCorkle said they included leaders in the past Spring's prison riots.

3d Victim of Crash On Turnpike Dies

HARRISBURG, Nov. 27 (AP)—Arthur M. Hoover, 45, of Southington, Conn., died in Harrisburg hospital tonight, the third victim of a two-car smashup on the Pennsylvania turnpike Tuesday night.

Two students from Baldwin Wallace college near Cleveland, among a group of six on the way to homes in the East for Thanksgiving, were killed in the accident near the Gettysburg interchange, on the eastern extension of the toll road.

Hoover, his wife, Leona, 35, their son, Donald Billups, 6, and all four other students were injured in the accident. Hoover, who had been listed as in "satisfactory" condition, suffered nose and rib fractures.

Mrs. Hoover's condition was reported as "unsatisfactory" and the son as "satisfactory" tonight.

The first two victims of the crash were Nancy Churchill, 18, Pearl River, N. Y., and Amos Wong, 18, Berea, Ohio.

Morse Plans No Part In Organizing Sessions

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 27 (AP)—Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon does not intend to take part in the Senate-organizing sessions of either the Republican or Democratic parties the newspaper the Oregonian said tonight after a telephone talk with the Senator in Washington, D. C.

Morse, who bolted the Republican party to support Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, the Democratic candidate for president, was quoted as saying:

"I intend to sit in the Senate for the next four years as a political independent. I will not attend caucuses of either the Republican or Democratic parties. I shall vote on the merits of each issue."

20 Convicts Stage 2d Outbreak in Week

BOSTON, Nov. 27 (AP)—Some 20 prisoners, including four murderers serving life terms, ripped out woodwork in their cells today, flooded sections of their cell block by puncturing water pipes and banged on bars in a Thanksgiving Day disturbance at State prison.

The outbreak was the second in six days. The past Saturday, prisoners held two guards hostages for a short time and set minor fires.

As a result of today's disturbance, officials said, all 588 prisoners were forced to eat their holiday meals in their cells.

After Saturday's disturbance, 22 prisoners were transferred to Norfolk Prison colony and 20 others, considered the toughest of the rebels, were locked in the Cherry hill section. It was here today's outburst occurred.

Holiday Traffic Deaths Rise to 62; Roads Snowy

By The Associated Press

The holiday traffic death toll rose to 62 Thursday night as motorists began the journey home from Thanksgiving Day festivities.

Snow-packed highways, which discouraged motor trips in many sections of the nation, were partially credited with the low auto death toll.

At least 15 other persons died from miscellaneous causes during the holiday counting which began at 6 p. m. Pottstown time Wednesday.

The Mason-Dixon line, surveyed in 1766, is still the traditional boundary between North and South in the United States.

3 Royersford Children Press Drive To Bring Yule Joys to Polio Victims

The Christmas spirit has entered the hearts of three Royersford youngsters, who have started a door-to-door appeal for funds to brighten the Yuletide for a brother and sister, polio victims in Sacred Heart hospital, Norristown.

Leah Bixler, 11; Kenneth Yeager, 11, and Peggy Spencer, 9, all of Royersford, started during the week to find out how many people would contribute to their fund.

They began with the thought in mind of buying a gift, but with Christmas so close they concluded they would get all they can and make it a Merry Christmas for Loretta Lee and John Lee, children of Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Lee, Sixth avenue and Green streets, Royersford.

Loretta will observe her seventh birthday anniversary, Monday. John was 3 on Nov. 17. He had been a patient in Montgomery hospital, but was moved to the same hospital with his sister Nov. 20. Both were afflicted with polio some weeks ago.

Cap Pistols Are Handy To Kill Fox, Boy Finds

BELLEVIEW, Ill., Nov. 27 (AP)—"Wild Bill" Georger, wearing two cap pistols low on his hips, wandered into the bad lands of his backyard today and got himself a fox without firing a shot.

Nine-year-old Billy was playing in the yard when a young red and gray fox seized him by the trouser leg. Young Bill whipped the toy guns from his holster and used them as clubs on the head of the fox.

When one gun broke, he added a kicking attack.

By the time his mother, Mrs. William Georger Sr., arrived to help the fox was dead.

The animal is not common in this vicinity.

Egypt Proposals Okayed By Group in Sudan Party

KHARTOUM, The Sudan, Nov. 27 (AP)—The General Assembly of the newly-formed Sudan Nationalist Unionist party decided today to accept Egyptian proposals on the Sudan as the party's minimum demands. The new party embraces all groups favoring unity with Egypt.

Egypt has proposed that self-government be granted to the Sudanese during a transitional period not to exceed three years. At the end of that period the Sudan would be given the chance to choose between unity with Egypt or complete independence. Egypt proposes also that British and Egyptian troops should be withdrawn from the Sudan at least a year before the Sudanese make their choice.

Schneider Hospitalized After Arriving in Rome

ROME, Nov. 27 (AP)—US Assistant Secretary of Commerce Thomas Schneider was hospitalized today after arriving by plane from Istanbul, Turkey.

Officials at Salvator Mundi International hospital said Schneider had a high fever when he arrived but later slept and appeared much improved. He has been accompanying Commerce Secretary Charles Sawyer on a swing through Europe and the Middle East.

Astor Estate Leaves Widow Well Off, But Tax Takes Big Slice

LONDON, Nov. 27 (AP)—Viscount Astor left a British estate of 974,700 pounds ($2,729,160), the bulk of it going to the tax collector, his eldest son and his Virginia-born wife, Lady Nancy Astor.

The will of the New York-born nobleman, who died Sept. 30, at 73, was filed for probate today. It made no mention of his American fortune, founded by his German immigrant great-grandfather, John Jacob Astor.

Death duties took 509,183 pounds ($1,425,712)—more than half the total. The eldest son, the third viscount, will get what remains after the generous provision for Lady Astor.

Astor, best known here as a newspaper and race horse owner, wrote a special clause in his will disinheriting any children "or remoter issue" who are not Protestants.

THE VISCOUNT named his brother, John Jacob Astor, chairman of the Times of London, together with the third viscount and other relatives to administer the estate.

He ordered them to use as much cash as they deemed necessary to meet "the adequate requirements" of his widow, who was Britain's liament.

She also receives the family first woman to be seated in Parliaments in trust for life and three homes in England.

Aneurin Bevan Elected To 'Shadow Cabinet'

LONDON, Nov. 27 (AP)—Leftwing Laborite Aneurin Bevan was finally elected today to the Labor party's "shadow cabinet." Members of this 15-man group in the House of Commons would fill cabinet posts if prime minister Churchill's Conservative government should be ousted. Bevan is the leader of a leftist group in his party that demands more rigid Socialism at home and less co-operation with the United States in foreign affairs. He was soundly trounced in the first round of party balloting the past week when six places in the "shadow cabinet" were filled. He had to wait until the second round of vot-

Spat and Slipper Ball Is in 8th Year

Though committee members of the Spat and Slipper ball stole a march on tonight's guests by going to a party this past Wednesday given by Mrs. John J. Anastasia and Mrs. Thomas A. McCaslin 3d, other partygoers will make-up for lost time by condensing their festivities.

Ball gaieties will begin with pre-party cocktail parties, dinners and post-party breakfasts tonight and tomorrow morning.

The younger set is going to Mary Ann Weber and her sister, Hazel Weber Rohrbach's, cocktail party about 10 o'clock tonight for intimate admiration of dazzling frocks and speculation about the evening's activities.

Mary Ann Weber will greet her guests in a simply cut black taffeta gown. Its only decoration is folded pink net sprinkled with rhinestones at the top of her strapless bodice.

Black velvet slippers will peek from the ballerina length hem; black clockwork will trim her stockings. Accessories will be rhinestone earrings, a bracelet and necklace.

Her date, John Schaeffer, a lawyer from Philadelphia, won't have to worry about having his pockets filled with female paraphernalia—she plans to carry a small black velvet bag.

Besides those who will be coming from the Benjamin Longacre's party, guests at the Webers' 1033 Rambler avenue home will be: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Umstead, Mr. and Mrs. E. Jules O'Dell, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Green.

Co-hostess Mrs. Grant J. Rohrbach and her dentist husband, Dr. and Mrs. Harry W. Brennecke, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur S. O'Dell, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Patrizi, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Maack and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas O'Dell.

Come 11 o'clock, the witching hour, all parties will move toward Brookside Country club.

In its eight years of life as the Spat and Slipper ball, the occasion has been dressed in many different costumes from year to year, with black and white as its one relatively static color scheme.

Though the war had been over three years in the winter of 1948, the martial influence still was to be seen in many places.

One of them was in that fall's Spat and Slipper ball decor. Besides banners, neon signs, glittering canopies and dancing figures painted on Brookside's exterior, parachutes were prevalent trimmings on the interior.

Carrying out the traditional white of the footgear frolic, the filmy nylon "chutes were draped from corners of the ceiling and fastened to the walls.

White balloons bobbed that year to carry out the color scheme.

Balloons, hundreds of them, were 1950's feature, too. That year they were black and white but some were a fugitive pink. Pink crepe in several times to soften the usual austerity. Pink panels covered windows, tables and backed the orchestra. Rhododendron and pale pink chrysanthemums half-encircled the bandstand.

White hearts and black top hats sprinkled the paneling and made a color transition to the black and white striped wall of the breakfast sunporch.

The two colors with emphasis on gold-sprinkled white carried out last year's French sidewalk cafe theme.

Table centerpieces were candletopped, white-painted bottles or gold and white painted twigs in upturned hats.

Frost-frozen in white and silver were "plants" which graced the cafe's flower boxes. Silver chandeliers sparkled at each end of the ball room.

This year, of course, is the question. Given a stylized circus motif, will there be black seals and white trotting ponies? Or black polka-dotted clowns and white striped acrobats? Will red or green be introduced with black and white?

Rebekah Lodge Plans Dance to Be Held in Odd Fellows Hall

During Wednesday night's meeting of the Lady Wittenmyer Rebekah lodge, Viola Barndt announced that a Christmas dance will be held by the lodge on Saturday, Dec. 6, at 8:30 p. m. in Odd Fellows hall. There will be square dancing as well as modern with William Morrell as caller.

A committee was chosen to make plans for the Christmas party to be held for the children of the Rebekah lodge and the Odd Fellows' lodge members on Saturday, Dec. 20, at 6 p. m. It includes: Lottie Gehris, chairlady; Alice Swartwood, co-chairlady; Frances Bower and Marie Lachman.

Members are asked to register their children with Lottie Gehris, 560-J-2, or Alice Swartwood, 3734-J, not later than Dec. 10.

The initiation for candidates scheduled for Dec. 10 has been postponed until Jan. 14. A ham dinner was planned for Sunday, Jan. 18, in the Odd Fellows hall. It will be sponsored by the Rebekah lodge and the Odd Fellows lodge.

The "pigs" were won by LaRue Seifert and Jane Dotterer. The next meeting will be on Dec. 10, with a Christmas party and birthday social on the agenda. Secret pals will be revealed at that time and new pals will be picked.

The following members observed their birthdays at the social honoring November birthdays: Virginia Keinar, Florence Budd, Martha Platt, Frances Weisser, Alice Swartwood and John Henry.

Refreshments were served by the social committee, including Lillian Rubright, Mary Shaner, Kathryn Shaffer, Florence Budd and Viola Barndt.

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES Committee to Address 600 Cotillion Bids

Fifteen pens will be jotting 600 names on square white envelopes Sunday in Mrs. William Hoar's home. Early next week, the 600 selected teen-agers will receive their invitations to the annual Christmas Cotillion, Dec. 29.

At a tea Sunday, given by Mrs. William Hoar, the junior committee will address the bids. Invites are limited 600 students, but each may bring one guest.

The formal dance, complete with receiving line and late supper, will begin at 9 p. m. in the Elks home. Mrs. J. Robert Gray is chairman of the affair.

Members of the junior committee, who will gather for the addressing tea with Mrs. Hoar, are: Mary Sue Mallison, Ann Rutter, Carol Rutter, Marcia Keller, Claudia Elicker, April Assee and Maryanne Mospador.

J. Robert Gray Jr., Jack Babel, Richard Jamison, William Garrow, William Dotterer, Fredie Kerlin Jr., David Reid-enour and Melvin Freoe Jr. are Cotillion patronesses, serving on the senior committee, are: Mrs. Carroll Rutter, Mrs. William Hoar and Mrs. Robert Mallison.

Twin Yohn Brothers Observe Anniversaries

Two twin brothers' wedding anniversaries today were honored at separate dinners yesterday in the homes of their respective sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Yohn, 29 Chestnut street, turned Thanksgiving supper into a 17th anniversary party for Mr. Yohn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Yohn.

Among the guests present were Mary Mentzer, Joseph Yohn and James Yohn.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Yohn's 45th wedding anniversary was celebrated at Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yohn's, 230 Wilson street, Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. Yohn's sister, Clara, was among the guests present.

Wolfs Mix Turkey Feast With Golden Wedding Fete

MR. AND MRS. EVAN ARTHUR WOLF

Thanksgiving dinner yesterday at the Charles Wolf home, North Manatawny street, was combined with a golden wedding celebration in honor of Mr. Wolf's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Arthur Wolf. On Nov. 20, 1902, Evan Arthur Wolf married Margaret Mae Engleman in a Reading Lutheran parsonage. The Rev. Z. H. Gable officiated.

They began married life as farmers near Geigertown, where both were born. Shortly after the wedding, Mr. Wolf was elected Geigertown road supervisor and school director, positions he held for 12 years.

Their fondest memories of life on the farm center around the country parties—sleighing and hayrides. "That's what we missed the most when we moved to the city," they say.

In 1929 the couple moved to their present home in Shillington when Mr. Wolf accepted a shipping job with Reading's C. K. Whitner & Son department store, where he still works.

In Shillington, he has served a term as councilman and is still active in the local fire company, Grace Lutheran church and the Knights of Malta.

His wife belongs to the fire company's auxiliary and to the Dames of Malta.

Always a sports fan, Mr. Wolf no longer gets to his favorite football and baseball games, but he roots for his favorite teams on television.

Mr. Wolf attributes both his age and his long, happy marriage to one virtue—temperance.

"I've never drank, smoked or chewed," he says proudly.

Margaret Wolf Mosser and Charles F. Wolf are the couple's two children.

Those attending the dinner were: Mrs. E. R. de Long, Jennie M. Geiger, Catherine Janet Wolf, Joan Wolf, Joanne Wolf and Ruth L. Wolf.

Betty Lou Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ziegler Jr., Ruth Wright, Alice Ann Ziegler, Margaret Wolf Mosser and Charles Frederick Mosser.

Female Cheer Leader Steals Show at Game

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 27 (UP)—Pretty little Janet Bates of Manual High school must be a good cheerleader. She can get yells from the opposition—with a stick.

At today's traditional football game, Janet and several others began burning a life-sized effigy of a male high student.

That brought aroused male students rushing across the field toward the brightly-burning dummy. "We're going to tear that down," they threatened.

"If you do, you're gonna get hit with this," retorted Janet, grabbing up a long stick.

One disbeliever then tried to grab Janet. Whack! She broke the stick over his head. At this point, police broke up the demonstration.

Male got its revenge, winning 30 to 0.

Della Short, Montgomery County's Home Economics Extension Representative, Suggests Hints for Inserting Zippers Properly

Della S. Short believes that the plight of many a young sewer in not being able to insert a zipper successfully can be alleviated by following a few simple rules.

Mrs. Short is the home economics extension representative of Montgomery county.

These are the reminders she suggests: first, extend the placket seam in cutting to a width of three-fourths to one inch. This gives a stronger and smoother placket.

Secondly, clip excess seam allowance at the waistline seam to prevent bulkiness. The placket opening should be longer than the zipper with the extra length always at the top.

Allow one inch for skirt openings, three-fourths inch for neckline openings and five-eighths inch for dresses.

Next, pin zipper tape to the fabric with pins at right angles, then ease the fabric onto tape while holding the tape tightly drawn. Work from bottom to top. Zipper tapes are pre-shrunk. You should keep the zipper closed and pull tab turned up during stitching. For skirt placket, insert zipper before putting on the band. Do not trim away tape ends until you have entirely completed the placket. Leave tape ends free on dress plackets.

Mrs. Short also suggests leaving a one-eighth inch clearance at top of zipper openings on dress, skirt and neck plackets.

Soap Is 'Queen of Cosmetics' for the Teenager's Complexion

By HELEN FOLLETT

A girl is usually her loveliest at sweet sixteen. It is the period of vanity. She finds the looking glass pleasant company. She enjoys adventures in beauty—a new hairdo, dazzling nail polish, pretty shoes, all the things that add up to a smart and charming appearance.

There is romance in the air. Life is all magnolias and moonlight for a sweet young girl.

Well and good, but let her consider some practical matters that will help her along the path to pulchritude.

For one thing, she must realize that soap is the queen of cosmetics, her very best beauty friend.

If skin is oily, she should lather it twice a day, pressing the suds into the pores with finger tips. Washcloths must always be clean. A complexion brush with bristles that do not weaken when moistened is a help. Keeping the face clean as clean is the first law.

If she is to avoid blackheads and pimples, she must mind her diet. Sebaceous glands are extra active during the teens and certain foods cause them to riot.

She should cut down on ice cream, chocolate and pastries of which she probably gets more than she needs because they appeal to the eye and the appetite.

She needs a light cream to keep the surface of the skin smooth. If the skin is oily, she should remove cream within the hour, never let it remain overnight.

No matter if her hands seem to be in perfect condition, she should lotion them frequently.

You can't overplay the beauty game when you use sensible methods.

When she wields the powder pad, let her remember that a light film brings a soft, velvety appearance. A bit too much powder and her face will have a spotty look.

She can find a powder brush at any cosmetic counter, pass it lightly over her face, removing the surplus fluff-stuff.

Here's a menu for a family supper: Baked Meat Loaf with Tomato Sauce, Whipped Potatoes, Canned Green Beans, Shredded Lettuce Salad with French Dressing, Raspberry Gelatin with Sliced Bananas, and Milk, Tea or Coffee. Serve bread with butter or margarine with the main course, of course.

YOUNG COMPLEXIONS need soap-and-water care for cleanliness. A good cream is a beauty aid, too. It keeps skin smooth.

MAKE YOUR OWN STOCK
Prepare a good stock for your chicken gravy by covering the giblets, wing tips and neck with water; add a few peppercorns, a whole clove, a small bay leaf, salt, celery leaves, and a small onion. Bring to a boil and then simmer until giblets are tender when pierced with a fork.

Small canned white potatoes are delicious heated in the oven with paprika and melted butter or margarine. Serve with minute steaks or shoulder lamb chops.

Emmanuel Lutheran Brownie Troop 11 Works on Decorations

Brownies of troop 11, Emmanuel Lutheran church, started to make decorations for their Christmas party during the meeting Wednesday in the church. The party will be on Dec. 13 at 2 p. m. in the church.

The flag ceremony opened the meeting with Judith Hampton and Carol Ann Hurter acting as color bearers; Mary Dolas and Gaye Gross, as color guards.

Following this ceremony, Margie Peck was invested into the troop.

Mrs. George Bickel closed the meeting with a Thanksgiving prayer.

Present were: Judith Bartman, Judith Bickel, Phyllis Covey, Mary Dolas, Gaye Gross, Judith Hampton, Carol Ann Hurter, Nancy Hutt, Marcia Hewitt, Edwina Gephart, Janet Grow, Charlene Himes, Cheryl Keim, Sharon Kulp, Rosemary Hausman, Nancy Johnson, Nancy Klink, Sharon Moyer, Sandra March, Patricia Saylor, Judith Scheffey and Sandra Werner.

Leaders were Mrs. George Bickel, Mrs. Walter Grow, Mrs. Douglas Scheffey and Mrs. Joseph Hutt, assistant.

Peanut butter blended with a little chili sauce and then mixed with crumbled crisp bacon makes a snack spread that men usually like.

Searles Mothers Are Told How to Answer Their Children's Questions

Searles Methodist Mothers guild learned at Tuesday's meeting how to answer children's questions from a quiz panel conducted by Mrs. Harold Rohn. Mrs. Milton Detwilder lead off with the query "What Is God?"

She said when mothers hear this question they should stress all the qualities that God is—love, justice, mercy and power. Children, she implied, should be led to accept the Deity as a vital, everyday part of their lives as well as the Biblical Creator. Part of introducing the God concept into a child's life, she continued, is a job of family example. "The family idea of God will naturally determine the child's attitude toward prayer," she said. "If the family doesn't feel God responds to its human need, then prayer is rather fantastic."

"But if the family is aware of God's love for them, it seems natural to try to reach Him through prayer for needs."

Youngsters should be taught, she emphasized, to "trust God to do what He knows is best for us, to realize God has a plan for each of us."

Mrs. M. G. Lengyel Jr. discussed "How Independent Shall Every Child Be?" as well as how to answer the question, "Why Must I Always Do as You Tell Me?"

She said "a certain amount of parental attachment is good; however, no child should be tied to his mother's apron strings beyond a reasonable period."

Parents have the duty, she believes, of helping their child develop independence without estranging him, and assisting him to attain intelligent adjustment according to the age level.

She advocated the use of reason when a child asks why he should be obedient—"tell him your reasons," she stressed.

"While the child cannot always be allowed to do as he pleases," she continued, "it is well not to have too long a list of 'don'ts'."

"How Was I Born" and related questions with their answers were the topic of Mrs. Maurice Hoover.

Children, she said, should absorb the facts of procreation and parturition gradually—receiving straightforward but simple answers to their questions as they ask them.

Mrs. Hoover strongly recommended utilizing flowers and their reproductive organs and methods for examples.

She pointed out "There is no reason for a mother to be embarrassed in front of her child, and he'll not be embarrassed if the mother isn't."

Only by early home instruction, she felt, will a child grow up with a wholesome attitude toward sex.

"I feel definitely," she said, "that the child who is not told honestly and directly about sex will eventually look upon his parents with resentment for not having helped him to understand."

Mrs. Walyter Myers and Mrs. Harold Rohn spoke to the group on the Methodist Women's Society for Christian Service.

President Louella Seidle opened the meeting with the devotional motto, Mrs. Jacob Wahl led devotions and Mrs. Milton Detwilder was pianist.

Mrs. Nicholas Dolas was named chairman for the Christmas party the Mother's guild will hold for primary grade children of the church from 2 to 4 p. m. Dec. 29.

Mrs. Clay Rinehart will show movies while Santa Claus will pass out small gifts.

Members voted to send a Christmas remembrance to Irene Boyer, bedridden 84-year-old of the church, and a package to Korea.

On Dec. 7, the guild will be in charge of the evening service at the church. Mrs. Nicholas Dolas and Mrs. George Huxoll will usher and Mrs. John La Pish will greet members at the door.

Speaker will be Richard Hohl. Mrs. Joseph Whalen will be in charge of the collection blessing and Mrs. Stanley Reider and Mrs. Michael G. Lengyel will direct the service.

Hostesses at the meeting Tuesday were Mrs. Jesse Begel and Mrs. Robert Boyer.

Other members attending were Mrs. William Kummerer Sr., Mrs. William Kummerer Jr., Mrs. Charles Leightcap, Mrs. John Hart, Mrs. Baron Roadarmel, Virginia Butcher, Mrs. Edward Johnson and Mrs. Harry Mentzer.

At the next meeting in the church parlor Dec. 16, members will hear the nominating committee's report.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Michael Lengyel, Mrs. John Hartenstine and Mrs. Walter Myers. Mrs. Clay Rinehart will lead devotions.

Dance Celebrating Football Team's Victory Attended by 350 Guests, Students, Alumni

Last night's dance at the Senior High school was a Victory dance in the true sense of the word as approximately 350 enthusiastic pupils and alumni clamored to get through the gymnasium doors after the High school football team won a close 14-12 victory over Downingtown.

Sponsored by the Athletic association board, the dance honored the members of both football teams.

Greeting the guests as they entered the gymnasium, was a welcoming sign in blue and white. Pennants of opposing schools decked the walls, with streamers in matching colors extending from the pennants to the center of the room.

Music for the affair was provided by alumnus Bill Deegan and his band.

Chaperone William McCabe, assistant football coach and sponsor of the AA, said that quite a number of alumni were present. Morrell Grigg also assistant coach of the team, was co-chaperone with Mr. McCabe.

Ad Man's Wife Enjoys Outdoor Thanksgiving

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 27 (AP)—Mrs. William T. Clawson, wife of the advertising manager of a Pittsburgh machinery firm, had just about the most pleasant Thanksgiving of any wife in the land today, she said.

As she has for the past 13 years, Mrs. Clawson and her family headed for Pittsburgh's spacious South park.

Out in the open, with the temperature hovering around the 40-degree mark, the Clawson family grilled thick juicy steaks and had all the trimmings.

As usual, Mrs. Clawson just took it easy while her husband supervised the arrangements. Clawson said he decided on the annual Thanksgiving outings because:

"Instead of having my wife cook over a hot stove all day I thought it would be more fun to go to the park."

Ike and Mamie Enjoy Quiet Thanksgiving Day

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—Like many another American, President Dwight D. Eisenhower and his wife had a quiet day of rest today. It marked a break in a busy schedule.

Still ahead of him for the rest of the week was a heavy calendar of conferences and decisions, but for the moment he took a holiday from problems of state.

His wife, Mamie, and their daughter-in-law, Barbara Eisenhower, drove leisurely to Riverside church for Thanksgiving services—and were a little tardy getting there.

"We were about 20 minutes late," Mrs. Eisenhower said later. She said they had thought the services would begin at 11 a. m., as on Sundays.

The general, like a lot of other husbands, had the job of carving the bird. Is he any good at it?

"He certainly is," Mrs. Eisenhower told reporters gathered outside the house. "He's had a lot of practice."

During the afternoon, the general rested, in sharp contrast to the whirlwind series of activities of the past week.

Five Hostesses Named For KC Auxiliary Monday

Five hostesses have been named for the Knights of Columbus auxiliary meeting at 8 p. m. Monday.

Ann Verno, Caroline Tighe, Helen Wagner, Helen Toth and Sue Torak will serve on the hospitality committee.

The meeting will be held in the post home.

Cook thin strips of onion in a little butter or margarine until they are golden-colored, then add them to hot cooked drained snap beans for a really tasty vegetable dish.

$300-a-Box Price Set For 1953 Inaugural Ball

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 (AP)—It will cost $300—including tax—for a box from which to view the inaugural ball, glittering climax to the Jan. 20 inauguration festivities, the subcommittee in charge said today. A box will hold eight guests.

The single admission price of $12 apiece, including tax, had been announced previously.

With a sure-fire demand far exceeding the 6000 limit on the guest list, the subcommittee said invitations will be distributed on a state-quota basis.

It said Republican National committee members and Republican State chairmen will make up the list of those to receive invitations, in consultation with their state finance chairmen and heads of Citizens for Eisenhower-Nixon clubs.

Mrs. Howard Coffin and Col. L. Corrin Strong, the subcommittee's co-chairmen, said the lists should be in their hands by Dec. 10.

Scholastic Season Ends With Most Favorites Winning

HARRISBURG, Nov. 27 (AP)—Thanksgiving Day, 1952, proved one of the biggest surprises in the 30 traditional turkey day frays on the card ended in unexpected results, though.

Upper Darby came through as figured, breezing past Haverford, 46-12, to become the fifth major eleven in the state to finish 1952 undefeated and untied. The victory, ninth in a row, gave Upper Darby the mythical Philadelphia area championship.

Ebensburg backed into the top spot of the Class A race of the Western conference when a strong Jersey Shore eleven came from behind to tie the Lock Haven, 7-7. An intercepted pass late in the fourth period offset an early Lock Haven score and left the Bobcats in a second place tie, with DuBois for conference honors.

Ebensburg, with eight triumphs and a tie, won the flag on a point basis. Lock Haven, with only the Jersey Shore tie in six conference games, could have overtaken Ebensburg with a win.

CONEMAUGH Twp won last year. A homecoming crowd at York remained silent at the end when Lancaster's Red Roses walked off with a 13-6 decision over the Bearcats, and the Central Penn crown safely tucked away. The two teams battled to a 6-all first half and then a 24-yard pass to Don Shelton gave the Red Roses the victory.

Lancaster finished with a 5-1 record to York's 5-2-0 to succeed Williamsport as champion. Only two major conference champs remain to be chosen as the regular season drew to a close. The Class 'AA' crown of the WPIAL will be awarded to the winner of Saturday's Washington-Allegheny tussle in Pittsburgh.

On Dec. 6 Sunbury, southern division titlist in the Eastern conference, meets Old Forge for the top prize in the 53-member Eastern conference.

OLD FORGE licked Taylor, 52-12, today when West Scranton was tied by powerful Dunmore, 6-6. On the basis of these results unofficial figures give Old Forge the northern division title.

Allentown's powerful Canaries had little trouble with neighboring Bethlehem, 25-6, to come out first in the so-called big three. Easton, previously beaten by Allentown and Bethlehem, came on to nip Phillipsburg, (N.J.), 14-7, in another of those traditional hum-dingers.

Boyertown Pulls Days Biggest Upset By Holding Upper Perkiomen to -0-0 Tie

By GARY TROLLINGER

Maybe it was the spirit of Thanksgiving . . . although Boyertown High has had few moments of rejoicing this year . . . we don't know. But spirit of some sort and heaps of it piled on Upper Perkiomen was the big factor as the Bears held the big, bad Yellow Jackets to a 0-0 stalemate yesterday morning before the perennial packed house on the BHS cleat lot.

What amounted to the surprise of the year in the Perkiomen-Schuylkill HSAA was forged largely through a devastating defensive program employed by the hosts that contained the Perkies' vaunted running devices to but 80 yards net. Gerry Hummel, probably the Big Four's hardest running back, chalked up 59 of those lengths.

UP was really close thrice. In the third period, it stalked down to the seven yard line only to have a handful of 15-yard penalties sand up the works. And in the final period, UP banged away to the one only to have a muffed pass from center snuff the last down bid before it could get a running start and then drove to the nine moments later only to lose out on a fumble.

Boyertown, employing a mixture of quick openers and trap plays aimed almost exclusively off tackle and inside it, showed off its best offensive blocking of the year. Terry Shaner was the big bull in the rushing department, carrying all but six of his team's ground plays and amassing 66 yards net.

Halfback Dick Reagan carried on the other planned rushing plays. Both he and Shaner had averages of three yards per carry or better.

The Bear offense seemed largely devoted to hold onto the ball as long as possible and then leave the job of limiting the heavily favored Perkies to the 5-4-2 defense that Bob Fleming has strung along with throughout the final half of the season.

Defensively, the Upper Perk battalion did as fine a job as expected, but with the ball, Dave Pritchard's Jackets had one bad time. Denny Roth, still favoring his once-separated shoulder, went absolutely nowhere, and Hummel and Del Fritz, the other ball-carrying members of the corps, couldn't seem to get their choice chunks of ground at coordinated intervals.

UPPER PERK seemed to gradually be getting the upper hand throughout the second half as the smaller Bruins began to tire, but the flame instilled in the hosts never quite got around to warming their feet in the end zone.

Just after the opening of the final half, a bad pass from center on fourth down fouled up Lignelli's punt attempt and he was dropped on his own 21, with UP taking over.

Roth, Hummel and Fritz each tried the fooling, advancing to the seven, but even though getting a first down there, a 15-yard personal foul penalty set them back to the 22.

Roth lost two when wing back-erup Bill Endy broke through to make the spot and another 15-yard foul call moved the Jackets back to the 39.

Boyertown was then caught off-sides, placing it back to the 34, and after Hummel's pass out of a single wing fell incomplete, Fetterman dropped back to pass then charged right up the middle for 21 yards to the 13. But Terry's fourth down aerial failed to click and Boyertown took over on the spot.

THE BEARS were continually in the hole from that time on. A 15 yarder against them put them back to their seven whence Lignelli booted out to his 33 on third down. The Perkies lost five on a mo-

Trojans Beat Whippets, 14-12

HOWIE BEDELL SCORES 2 SMITH KICKS POINTS

By ED TAGGERT

Howie Bedell ran like he never ran before yesterday morning at Downingtown to score a last-minute touchdown and lead the Pottstown Trojans to a 14-12 win over the Whippets.

Personally accounting for both his team's TDs and three-quarters of its yards rushing, the six-foot Sophomore crashed over after a six-yard touchdown run with barely a minute to play. Earlier he had raced 30 yards for six points to start the Trojans on an uphill climb after they had fallen behind 12-0 in the second quarter.

The margin of victory was supplied by the talented toe of Senior George Smith, who must be given credit for most of the Trojans' success in the Ches-Mont league. It was Smith's extra point that gave the Blue and White a tie with Phoenixville, and in the 13-12 win over West Chester he again booted the point.

Hardly enough can be said about the brilliant showing of Bedell. Always known for his speed, Howie yesterday forgot the charitable significance of Thanksgiving with his fierce competitive running.

He twisted and fought and galloped for 231 net yards gained on 24 ball-carrying attempts. This surpassed even his outstanding display of running against Berwyn earlier this year.

Downingtown fullback Bernie Cellini made life miserable for the Trojans in the second quarter with a pair of long runs, the first to set over the Whippets initial score, and the second for a 41-yard TD.

Bedell brought the Trojans back into the game a short time before the first half ended with a 30-yard romp around his left end for six points, and Smith added the conversion.

THE FANS went home talking about Bedell but Seniors Jack Bechtel, Bob Sutton, Ron Downie and Bill Garrow all covered themselves with glory.

In the Trojans 1-2 punch attack, Bechtel was the left jab that set up Bedell's haymakers. The hard-running right halfback ground out 86 helpful yards with his straight ahead charges.

A sterling goalline stand by the Trojans in the third quarter proved the turning point of the game. The Whippets threatened only three times, twice they scored, and on the last occasion were shoved back from the one-yard line on a fourth down.

The big push for the game clincher got underway one play after the refs announced to Coaches Heeb Meyers and Howard Caskey that four minutes remained in the game.

Reserve left halfback for Downingtown, Ron Jeffries booted down to the Pottstown 20 to give the Trojans possession for the last time. Eight plays later they won the game.

FIRST BEDELL hit the middle for 11 yards and a first down. Josh

Sova, who engineered the 80-yard march in his first big chance at quarterback, tried to skirt left end and picked up two more.

It was Bedell again around right end behind a crunching block by Ron Downie for 20 more yards over into Downingtown territory.

Without hardly catching his breath, Bedell whizzed around the other end and moved all the way to the Whippets' 10 before Tom Pollock knocked him out of bounds. Howie was hurt on the play and Carl Burns replaced him.

Bechtel tried the middle for no gain, and then came right back at the same spot and went to the five. Bedell, who seemed to bruise easy but heal fast all day long came back into the game, but a wayward pitchout from Sova caught him off stride and he was hit for a yard loss.

Coach Meyers did some hurried crystal gazing and all he could see was Bedell racing around left end. Howie did not let his coach down and with a ferociousness new to the mid-mannered Sophomore, he never stopped driving when hit at the two. A side-long dive carried him to the end of the 80-yard trail after he personally covered 74 yards of the drive with the ball under his arm.

The Trojans started off as if they meant to wrap up their fourth victory of the season in a hurry. The first time they gained possession of the ball on their own 16, they advanced 69 yards to the home club's 15 before a 15-yard holding penalty put an end to their progress.

ON THE LAST play of the first period Downingtown got an important break when a fast whistle that wasn't heard by Pottstown fans deprived the Trojans of a recovery of a Whippett fumble on the losers' 27.

The second quarter opened like a hurricane as Cellini squirmed his way loose for a 66-yard gain down to the Pottstown seven. Paul Stofko gave chase and forced Cellini into a halt, and Don Monroe brought the bulky fullback down.

Jeffries, who was subbing for the injured Bob Miller, took a handoff from Cellini and went over his right tackle for the score on the next play. Sutton was injured and had to sit out the rest of the quarter.

The pass from center was not too good and Stofko was in to rush Jeffries conversion attempt, and he missed to hold the score at 6-0.

The next time Downingtown regained the ball, the roof was first badly bent and then it caved in completely.

Pollock came around from his wingback spot in the Whippets single wing formation and took a reverse around his left end for 56 yards into the end zone. But left end John Boggs was offside and the play was called back.

IT ONLY DELAYED the Whips because after Pollock gained 17 yards on the same play, Cellini again broke through the line for his second long scamper. Stofko again tailed him but he couldn't close the gap this time and the home fans were happy with a 12-0 lead. Jeffries kick was now this time.

A poor punt by the long-booting Jeffries gave Pottstown the ball on the Downingtown 30 late in the second quarter. Bedell then chalked up one of his better runs of the day by going wide around left end behind Ray Donnelly's crucial block at the scrimmage line.

From there on Howie just stretched his long legs and raced down the sideline for the score. When Smith kicked the extra point it was a good omen, and the superstitious were rewarded in the end.

Little Bill Garrow was acclaimed by his coaches after the game as the one responsible for blocking the middle of the line against the Whippets running game in the second half. He came within inches of blocking two Downingtown punts and as usual his offensive blocking was first-class.

Sutton and Downie made the important stop when Downingtown reached Pottstown's one-yard line late in the third period. Along with Jack Bechtel this pair broke through to nail Jeffries as he tried to run off right tackle and dropped him on the three.

The Trojans gave Coach Meyers a .500 season with 4-4-1, and tied Coatesville for fifth place in the Ches-Mont final standings.

Pirates Fall, 51-7, Under Royersford's 2nd Half Outburst

By HARLEY BRANDRETH

They closed the 1952 Twin-Borough high school football season on Spring City Pirates' fairway yesterday morning, with the Royersford Eagles soaring to a 51-7 triumph, after a first half which left the ultimate result hanging in the balance.

Texas Hammers Texas A & M, 32-12

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 27 (AP)—Texas ground out one touchdown per quarter and added a safety and field goal today to whip its bitterest rival, Texas A & M, 32-12 for a clean sweep in Southwest conference play.

The Aggies, 'stopped cold for three quarters, put together two good drives under the direction of substitute quarterback Don Ellis to score twice in a wild final quarter.

Longhorn right half Billy Quinn's blistering speed carried him across the goal line twice as he set a new league record for Sophomore scoring. His 13 touchdowns for the season broke the old mark of 12 set by another Texas great, Bohn Hilliard, in 1932.

At that, Quinn's performance was second to that of teammate Gib Dawson, who slashed and bucked for 134 yards and one touchdown and kicked three extra points and 17-yard field goal for 12 points.

Dawson wound up the regular season with 70 points, only eight behind Quinn, the league leader. Fullback Dick Ochoa accounted for the other Texas tally with a three-yard plunge in the final period.

Fullback Connie Magouirk made the first Aggie touchdown on a one-yard buck after Texas had been penalized from its 15. Raymond Haas plunged from the six for the other counter,

The game crew of Buccaneers endowed with a fighting spirit finished the first quarter in a 7 to 7 stalemate and completed the first half by giving up only one more six-point, in the second period, to register a 13 to 7 lead at half-time. A gallery of 5000 watched the proceedings.

The invading Forders mustered a renewed attack in the last two periods, scoring six more TDs to humble the defenders and even the standing between the two high school elevens over a period of 27 years. The 'Ford victory also wrapped up the championship of Perkiomen-Schuylkill Valley league.

Since 1926, when the Twin-Borough championship series began, the log shows each team the winner of 11 games, with five deadlocks.

Royersford finished its season with eight victories and two setbacks, the losses not counting in league competition. Spring City recorded a victory (24 to 14 over North Coventry), one tie game and lost seven starts.

Gary Grater, one of 12 RHS Seniors who played their last game, showed the way with four touchdowns. Carroll Swenson, another last year man, scored twice. Lou Alexander, also in his last year, came through with one, and Charlie Miller was the other six-point performer. Bill Jones scored the lone TD for Spring City, after recovering a fumble.

Layne Sparks Lions To Win Over Packers

DETROIT, Nov. 27 (AP)—Quarterback Bobby Layne, a three-touchdown passing demon and a ball carrying giant, lifted the Detroit Lions into undisputed first place in the National conference of the National Football league today with a 48-24 triumph that eased the Green Bay Packers out of the lead.

The Lions vaulted out of the four-way tie, that had also included San Francisco and Los Angeles, with a 17-point fourth period explosion against the Packers that thrilled 39,117 shivering Thanksgiving Day fans and televisions across the nation.

Layne, the fiery Texan, threw scoring passes for 10 and 33 yards to end Cloyce Box and nine yards to end Leon Hart to put his Lions within two games of a conference title tie.

The Lions, winners of seven and loser in three starts, could tie by defeating the Dallas Texans and Chicago Bears in their remaining games.

Layne, often criticized by Lions fans for holding out the ball and two converted into touchdowns. Although fumbles hindered the Packers, they trailed only 24-17 at the half thanks to quarterback Tobin Rote's six and four yard touchdown passes to end Bill Howton. Rote also flung a 54 yard scoring pass to Howton in the third period. Fred Cone converted each time.

Bill Reichardt's 43-yard field goal with two minutes remaining in the first period gave the Packers a 3-all score at that point and it was as close as the Green Bay team came to the lead.

THE LIONS, favored by seven to 10 points, got their clinching points in the fourth period after Jack Christiansen ran a kickoff back 41 yards. Moments later Pat Harder kicked a 26 yard field goal, a duplicate of one he booted midway in the first period. Then two minutes later, Layne passed 22 yards to Box who was run out of bounds on the three. Harder boomed across from the one for the score.

Substitute quarterback Jim Hardy came in after Detroit's Dick Flannagan recovered a fumble on the Green Bay 32. He passed six yards to Hart in the end zone and Harder converted for the sixth time.

Layne hurled a 55 yard over-the-shoulder pass to Box as the first period ended to put the ball on the Green Bay 31. Two short passes moved it to the 10 from whence Layne hit Box in a corner of the end zone with the TD pass. Two minutes later, tackle Thurman McGraw, recovered Rote's fumble on the Green Bay nine. Hart, a 262 pound giant, caught Layne's pass on the one and brushed a tackler aside for the score.

Box caught a 33-yard toss and outdistanced the secondary seven minutes later to move two touchdowns ahead of the Packers. The Packers fought back, but it was all over.

trying to run instead of passing, was his team's leading ball carrier today. He gained 63 yards in 13 rushes to push his yardage total to 383—well up among the league's 10 leading ground gainers.

Layne who operated with a shaky one touchdown advantage most of the time also completed 16 of 30 attempts for 249 yards. He had his boys out in front partly because of five Green Bay fumbles in the first half, all of which were recovered by the Lions with tion penalty, but Hummel got nine yards on a pair of tackle swats sandwiched around Fritz's seven yarder for a first on the 22. Roth came through with his longest gain of the day—nine lengths—off left tackle to the 13 and Hummel biffed over the opposite side for five more and another restart on the eight.

Still bolting the tackles, Fetterman sent Roth and Fritz into the line to carry the Perks to the five. But after Hummel rammed to the four, the Perkers were charged with a personal foul worth 15 yards and the ejection of center John Brunner from the proceedings.

Working from the 20, Fetterman hit Fritz for a two yard gain with a pass into the left flat. The referee again detected a foul, this time on Bear guard Hal Bernhart flat to flanker Dick Ludy, good for eight lengths to the Perk 25 and a first down.

SHANER swatted at guard twice for a yard each, however, and Lignelli failed to complete his third and fourth down heaves, and the bid wasn't high enough to buy anything worthwhile.

Boyetown got down to the Perk 27 late in the first half after Dick Fronheiser recovered Perk, quarterback Terry Fetterman's fumble while the latter was attempting to pass from his 42.

Shaner got six off tackle and Reagan three off guard, and Shaner came back off tackle for a stride for a first down on the 32.

Five plays later, Upper Perk was back at the golden door in another abortive scoring attempt.

Hummel circled right end on third down out of a single wing for 12 yards to the 18 and Fetterman's pass to Tomlinson got the Jackets a first down on the nine.

Hummel sliced around right end again, but Shaner stopped him after a yard advance and on the next play Fetterman fumbled and Boyetown recovered on its nine.

With that the Bears drove upfield for two first downs, getting out to their 31 and apparently were still rolling when the game ended.

Boyetown had things pretty much its own way throughout the first period, never allowing the Perkers outside of their own territory and making their deepest penetration of the day into UP real estate.

After a 15 yard penalty midway through the period set UP back to its 11, Bob Smith punted out of bounds on his 38. Reagan got five over his right guard and then Lignelli completed his only pass of the day, a quick pitch into the right

Dallas Texans Win 1st Game in Professional League 27-23, After Losing Big Lead to Bears in 4th Period

AKRON, Ohio, Nov. 27 (AP)—The orphaned Dallas Texans, refusing to quit even after dropping an 18-point lead, drove 75 yards to the deciding touchdown today and upset the favored Chicago Bears, 27-23.

Frank Tripucka, who completed 16 of 26 passes, plunged over from one yard out 34 seconds before the final gun with the touchdown that produced the Texans' first victory in 10 starts.

The enraged Bears struck for three touchdowns in the final quarter for a three-point lead before that last march by the Orphans.

A small crowd estimate at 3000 turned out for the game in Akron's Rubber Bowl.

Tripucka completed six aerials in the deciding drive, the last to Tom Keane good for 18 yards to the two.

Two recovered fumbles and an intercepted pass set up the first three Texas touchdowns.

PAT CANNAMELA recovered Eddie Macon's bobble on the Chicago 45 in the second period, and five plays later Zolzie Toth crashed over from the two.

John Pettibon fell on Gene Schroeder's fumble on the Chicago 38—still in the second period—and four plays after that George Taliaferro passed to Dick Wilkins for 13 yards and the tally.

In the third period, Stan Williams intercepted a pass by Chicago's Bob Williams and galloped 25 yards to the Chi-

George Blanda passed 41 yards to Babe Dimancheff and 35 yards to Schroeder for two Chicago touchdowns. The Bear's other six pointers came after Tripucka was caught trying to pass and fumbled. Chicago's Ed Sprinkle recovered on the Dallas one and on the next play Billy Stone went over.

DON KINDT tackle Buddy Young in the Texas end zone for the Bears' first two points in the second period after pass interceptions twice had kept the Bears from scoring.

Right after that the Texans struck back for their first touchdowns.

Eddie Macon, returning the kickoff, fumbled on the Chicago 45 and Cannamela recovered. Tripucka flipped to Ray Pelfrey for two first downs and then Taliaferro sprinted to the two from where Toth went over.

Today's game was originally scheduled to be played in Dallas. It was moved here after the owners turned their franchise back to the league.

Pirates Fall, 51-7, Under Royersford's 2nd Half Outburst

fumble and raced 15 yards over the broad line. Doug Beard was equal to the task of booting the extra point and the score barometer went to 7-7.

Royersford started a march from the Spring City 37 in the second chukker to forge into the lead. After rushing to the two-yard line, Swenson in two attempts tallied, but Wolfe's placement kick was blocked and the score read 13 to 7.

IT REMAINED that way until a 35-yard run by Miller in the third beat carried the ball to the Spring City two-yard line, where it seemed easy for Grater to score his first touchdown. Wolfe's try for the point was wide. Score, 19 to 7. Miller's run had come after a steady march from Royersford's 28-yard line after the kickoff.

The ball rested in scoring position again after recovery of a Spring City fumble on the Pirate 27-yard line. Johnson, Grater and Alexander advanced to the 17, where Grater whirled around right end to score his second. Wolfe's try for this point failed to go between the uprights. Score, 25 to 7. Grater sped to his third counter before the period closed on a sweep around left end from the 43-yard line, but the try for the point was blocked. Score, 31-7.

Another score followed in the fourth bracket, after getting possession of the ball on a fumble on the Spring City 23. Grater carried the ball twice for a first down, Miller added nine more to put the ball on the four-yard line, and Grater circled left end for his fourth and last TD. Bob Quinn added this extra point on a pass pitched by Wolfe. Score 38 to 7.

WALT KALIL recovered a fumble on the Spring City 18 to set up another touchdown. After a series of line thrusts by Alexander and Swenson, the latter plunged through from the one-yard line. Alexander tried to throw a pass to Quinn for the point, but failed to find a receiver and tried to run it. He failed. Score 44-7.

Late in the game a Spring City punt was downed on the Royersford 30, where Bob Quinn accepted a pass from Alexander and sprinted to the two-yard line. This play was a duplication of one before it which failed when Quinn was unable to hold the ball. From the two-yard line Alexander was equal to the task with a sneak through center and scored the final touchdown. Wolfe's try for the last point was good, sending the score to 51-7.

Royersford's coach, Bob McNelly, sent a second-string team in after the next kickoff, Wolfe to Bainbridge, with about a minute left to play. The Spring City back was downed on his 25-yard line. Bainbridge gained five, Edwards three and Bob Hunter, a sub-back, scored Spring City's only first down on the last play of the game. Royersford had scored 13.

Playing their last game for Royersford were Swenson, Nick Dinocenti, Lou Alexander, Grater, Bob Quinn, Mark Horner, Tad Tyson, Allen Wolfe, Jack Troutwine, Walt Kalil, Clair Hunter and Pete DeHuff.

NAVY FULLBACK FRANCO
THRIVES ON FOOTBALL

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 27 (AP)—Fred Franco, the chunky fullback who suddenly turned from an unsung old reliable into a glittering Navy star, gripes about only one thing.

That's the chow, about which any guy in uniform has an inherent right to gripe.

Franco isn't always harping about the food. Only when it's not just exactly split-T right for an athlete in training. Condition is religion with the 190-pounder from Newport, Pa., during football season.

Franco is devoted to the game, and Coach Eddie Erdelatz—who didn't think his steady ground gainer complained about anything—is devoted to Franco.

"A real competitor, a real leader," Erdelatz said on the eve of Navy's departure for Philadelphia and its big game with Army this Saturday.

And higher tribute to his class as a fullback: "Franco even looks good when the team looks bad."

FOR THREE years now the 21-year-old son of a former Rhode Island semi-pro grinder has been the almost unnoticed but undisturbed mainstay of Navy's backfield.

After a year at Brown and seasoning here as a Plebe, Franco began his Sophomore year as a first-stringer. He's been No. 1 fullback ever since, except for the close of the 1950 season when Dave Bannerman regained his old ball-carrying punch and moved in.

Franco was the fellow they called on when a couple of yards were needed most. He cracked opposing lines 179 times his first two seasons for an average of almost 4 per try.

He rolled on this year, then came into his own as a star against Duke. He ripped through Blue Devil defenses and scored both touchdowns in Navy's 16-6 upset win. The next week against Columbia he carried 23 times for 180 yards, including one touchdown on a 56-yard burst.

ALTOGETHER this season he has averaged 4.2 yards in 129 trips, more than twice as many as any other middle.

Lately, the 5-foot-9 plugger has looked faster than ever. Erdelatz thinks he really has picked up get-away speed.

"He is a great football player in every respect," Erdelatz said. "He does everything the way it should be done."

Down at Annapolis where Eddie Erdelatz is giving his protégés the "be loose" psychological treatment, the young Navy coach said:

"This year I'm more worried than ever before."

He probably has just cause to be. Navy is a 7-to-10 point favorite. Army, its squad shattered by the 1951 cribbing scandal, now has been fused into an alert, sharp-striking force. Army is still smarting under last year's 42-7 licking, the worst in the 61-year history of the series.

WINNER over a big, tough Pennsylvania team two weeks ago. Army got a new infusion of confidence, according to Blaik. "It was the first time this year we went out and licked a team better than we were—it gave us a real lift," Blaik said.

The game at Philadelphia's Municipal stadium will be witnessed by a sellout crowd of 102,000, including President Truman and numerous other dignitaries. Millions of others will view the contest on television. It is the game of the week under the restricted college program and will be beamed to the nation's parlors by National Broadcasting company, starting at 1:15 p. m. Pottstown time.

Johnny Gonsalves
Fights Zulueta
In Garden Debut

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—Johnny Gonsalves, a lanky lightweight with a flashy wardrobe, hopes to show Garden, and national television fight fans some flashy punching tomorrow night when he faces Cuba's Orlando Zulueta in a ten rounder.

The five-foot, ten inch Oakland, Calif., 135-pounder, rated as the No. 2 contender of his division, is an 11 to 5 choice to snap the Havana hopeful's six-fight victory streak.

This will be 22-year-old Johnny's Garden and national TV debut. He hopes to make it a good one. An impressive triumph in full view of a national audience means more lucrative fights. And the Californian is out to further his bid for a title shot with champion Jimmy Carter.

Zulueta, a lithe 24-year old boxer with a whiplash left, is primed to pull his second upset in a row. He outpointed contender Paddy DeMarco in his last start on Oct. 27, and Paddy is the guy who whipped Gonsalves on the Coast seven months ago.

"Odds mean nothing," said Zuley. "I underdog to DeMarco and I beat him. I beat Gonsalves too."

ZULUETA'S record is nothing to brag about but he's been coming on fast. His record is 41-15-8 with four knockouts. He's never been stopped.

Gonsalves has been stopped twice, by Freddie Dawson and Henry Davis. His overall record is 26-6-2 with five kayos.

No knocker-outers here. Both, however, have highly skilled lefts. This is one for the devotees of scientific boxing.

Like Zulueta, Gonsalves, has a modest streak going. He's unbeaten in five, with only a draw to mar the string. But that tie was with the highly regarded Georgie Araujo in Providence. Johnny followed that up by beating Araujo in ten a month later in the same city, Araujo's stamping grounds.

New York uses the round scoring system. The referee and two judges do the voting. A majority vote is necessary to win.

Howard, Lincoln Tie

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 (AP)—Howard university of Washington scored three touchdowns in 11 minutes of the last quarter today to tie the Lincoln university of Pennsylvania, 19 to 19 before 6371 fans.

Howard's quarterback Hal Davidson fired a pass to halfback Art Van Brakle with 11 seconds to go. It was good for 11 yards and the tying score.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27 (AP)—The bull-like rushes of fullback Joe Varaitis and the accurate passing of Glenn Adams gave Penn's Quakers a 14 to 7 victory over traditional rival Cornell today. The triumph clinched the tenth Ivy league football title for Penn and perhaps saved Coach George Munger's job.

Penn marched 80 yards in the first period on 12 plays with Varaitis, a Junior fullback from Swoyerville, who had been used sparingly on offense this year, carrying the ball four times from the 12 yard line into the end zone. He bolted across from the one-foot line and Carl Semper converted to give Penn a 7-0 lead.

Midway through the third period, after its rock-ribbed defensive platoon had stymied a pair of Cornell threats, Penn moved 85 yards for its final and winning score, the payoff being a six yard pass from Adams to John Lavin in the end zone. Semper again converted to make the count, 14-0.

Between their two TDs, and in the final period, the favored Quakers spent their time digging in deep in their own back yard and repelling a revitalized Cornell offense, sparked by the passing of quarterback John Jaeckel and the linesmashing

Cincinnati 'Cats
Surprise Miami

CINCINNATI, Nov. 27 (AP)—The University of Cincinnati's Bearcats collected touchdowns on every one of their major scoring opportunities today to smash to a surprisingly onesided 34 to 9 victory over Miami university.

The defeat was the only one suffered by Miami in nine games this season. Cincinnati's triumph in the series, which dates back to 1888, allowed the Bearcats to retain the Mid-American conference championship and finish their season with eight triumphs, one defeat and one tie.

Where Cincinnati cashed in every time it got within reaching distance of the goal line, the Redskins from Miami were a picture of futility. Most of the time when touchdown territory was in sight.

Five times Miami was inside UC's 20-yard line, but the Redskins could score only once, as their own fumbles and Cincinnati's tight defense broke up their threats.

Cincinnati, nursing a 13 to 9 lead, broke the game wide open in the fourth quarter with three touchdowns.

2 0 7 0—9
Miami scoring: Touchdown, Ansel. Conversion, Sautter. Safety, Root. (Blocked by fullback behind the goal line.)
Cincinnati scoring: Touchdowns, De Rene 2, Delaney, Andreass, Rossi. Conversions, Pisanelli 4.

Interstate Loop Takes Franchise
Of Harrisburg

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27 (AP)—The Harrisburg franchise in the Class B Interstate Baseball league was taken over temporarily today by the league itself "to give possible bidders a better chance to arrange their affairs," it was announced by President Gerald P. Nugent.

Today's meeting at the Bellevue Stratford hotel here was attended by nine Interstate league executives, gathered to discuss the fate of the Harrisburg club and the league itself.

In attendance were: Howard C. Gordon, general manager at Harrisburg; Edward F. Kirschner, president at Hazleton; Donald Dix, president at Allentown; Charles Stoneham, Sunbury president; Rufus K. Edwards, general manager, and Eugene J. C. Rainey, owner, both of Hagerstown; George W. Smith, president, and Clarence Gassaway, a director at Salisbury (Md.) and John B. Worden Jr., also of Harrisburg.

The York and Lancaster clubs were not represented, Nugent announced, because top officials of Nugent said today's action in effect adopted a resolution proposed at a previous league meeting held at York, Nov. 17.

Major League
Bigwigs Arrive
For Annual Meeting

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 27 (AP)—The big guns of the nation's baseball industry began arriving today for the annual Winter meetings of the major and minor leagues.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick was expected today and more than 1000 representatives of professional baseball are to follow by Monday.

On that day the minor leagues meeting will open, and the sessions of the major leagues will follow later in the week.

The first item of business Monday will be the annual major league draft of minor league players. After that will come separate meetings of the American and National leagues, trade talk, hiring of managers and preparations for the business to come before the formal sessions.

The earliest of the early birds are already on hand. They include Bob Finch of the major leagues office, W. F. Braham, Cincinnati Reds; and Mel Jones, Brooklyn Dodgers.

TOMORROW Horace Stoneham, owner of the New York Giants, and Leo Durocher, Giants manager, are expected. Durocher is expected to reveal at that time whether he will manage the Giants after the 1953 season.

Saturday, President Warren Giles of the National league, and representatives of the Braves, Cubs, Cardinals, White Sox and parts of the Pittsburgh and Philly organizations will pull into Phoenix.

Try and Stop Me by BENNETT CERF

GROUCHO MARX owes it to his legion of admirers to revive some day the classic scene in which he played Napoleon, bidding farewell to a slightly bleary-eyed Josephine. "Jo," he would declare, seizing her in his arms, "your eyes shine like the seat of my blue serge pants and I know you are as true as a three-dollar cornet. But hark, they are playing the Mayonnaise! The army must be dressing." Josephine came out of her trance to aver, "Nappy, I am true to the French army." "Thank heaven," Groucho shouted, "France has no navy!"

Sam Himmelfarb writes about a new millionaire in Scarsdale who was showing a friend around his modernistic "push-button" mansion. "This is the best gadget of the lot," he exulted. "After a night out, I sometimes feel like stepping into a nice hot bath right here without the trouble of going into the bathroom. I just press this button—" He did so and in rolled the bathtub, full of scented hot water and—the millionaire's wife!

The Elephant—This is the big, stalwart, unpassable type who plants himself in the middle of the road and slowly plods along. He forces the normal driver to zoom around him regardless of the risk. Accused of being a traffic hazard, he looks hurt and cries: "Who me? I was only going twenty."

The Jackass—This guy has big ears but can't hear. He never pulls over for anyone and likes to weave along the highway, stopping on the top of hills to enjoy the scenery.

Churches Crowded on Thanksgiving

Krouse, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran, reported an attendance of 400 at 8 a. m. services in his church.

"It was the largest Thanksgiving service I can remember at Emmanuel," he observed, "and I've been here 21 years."

A 9 A. M. UNION SERVICE in St. Paul's Reformed, Stowe, had an attendance above expectations, the Rev. Paul C. Scheirer, pastor said. About 130 members of St. Peter's Lutheran, Brethren in Christ and the host church were on hand.

The Rev. Scheirer said the usual attendance at previous union services of the three churches was only about 100.

Principal speaker at the Stowe service was the Rev. Cletus Naylor, pastor of Brethren in Christ church. In his talk he contrasted the grateful spirit of the Christian with the negative attitude of the worldly man.

The Rev. A. S. Hanson, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran, read the scripture lesson and offered prayer. The combined choirs sang a thanksgiving anthem.

The service was in charge of the Rev. Scheirer.

PRINCIPAL SPEAKER at the other union service yesterday morning was the Rev. Heywood L. Butler, pastor of Second Baptist, who spoke at combined services of his own church and Bethel A.M.E.

A BIBLE QUOTATION from Second Chronicles, "Give thanks unto the Lord," was the Rev. Butler's sermon text.

The Rev. Martin opened the meeting by leading the combined congregations in recitation of the 23rd Psalm.

Kenneth Himes, director of Bethel A.M.E. choir, led the combined choirs of the two churches in the anthem, "Give Thanks Unto God."

The service, which was attended by 200 members of the co-operating churches, closed with a song service and a ten-minute personal testimony period.

"The spirit of the people at our service was one of gratitude for material and spiritual benefits," the Rev. Martin said after the meeting.

"They felt it was time today to give thanks more than ever before," he added.

A special prayer was offered for American soldiers in Korea at the end of the service.

THE REV. GEORGE A. LINEXER, rector of Christ Episcopal, said yesterday that almost 100 percent of the members were present at 10 a. m. Holy Communion yesterday.

In his sermon the Rev. Linexer observed that gratitude is the parent of all virtues, and that the world's troubles are the result of ingratitude.

The choir of Christ Episcopal sang the Thanksgiving Communion service. About 100 persons attended.

Matins at 8 a. m. in Grace Lutheran included a sermon by the Rev. Edgar S. Brown, pastor, on the theme, "Words of Martin Luther," from the small catechism.

The Rev. Brown pointed out that it is not enough to appreciate gifts. He said we must recognize God as the source of the gifts.

ABOUT 175 PERSONS heard the Rev. Dr. Gustave W. Weber, supply pastor of Transfiguration Lutheran, speak on the theme "Giving thanks for things we take for granted" at 8 a. m. services in the church yesterday.

Members of the First Church of the Brethren yesterday morning heard a recently ordained young pastor of their church preach his first sermon since being licensed. The young pastor, Harold Kepen, took as his theme the simple work "thankful." He examined the significance each letter in the word could have.

Truth, hope, advocate, name, knowledge, faith, unity and love are words whose total meaning may be summed up in the word formed from their initial letters, he explained.

Edith Johnson, Naomi McConnell, Hazel Neff and Ruth Levengood formed a quartet to furnish special vocal music at the service.

ZION'S REFORMED members heard the story of the "First Thanksgiving" told by the pastor, the Rev. Howard A. Kosman, at their 8:30 a. m. service.

The chancel was decorated with fruits and vegetables for the special service.

One hundred, and thirty-six persons attending the New Hanover Lutheran service placed written prayers, of thanks in the offering plates at yesterday morning's service.

To insure secrecy of the individual prayers they were burned after being collected.

THE NEW HANOVER CONGREGATION held a congregational breakfast after the service, attended by 80 members.

Flowers on the altar at Emmanuel Lutheran at the Thanksgiving service were placed by three displaced families who have found refuge in this country.

The families, all from Latvia, are Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Moerd and daughter Yvonne; Mrs. Alma Celinskis and son, Andrew, and Mr. and Mrs. Janis Keps and daughter, Elizabeth.

MRS. SHOMO DIES

her since it was founded in 1920. One of the original 50 charter members, much of her time was spent with three organizations at the church, the Ladies' Bible class, the Busy Workers and the Mothers' club.

The past Oct. 22, Mrs. Shomo and her husband, Charles H. Shomo, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. More than 100 persons attended a dinner in the couple's honor at the West End Fire company.

Shomo said, after his wife's death yesterday, "I'm lost now. I don't know what I'm going to do."

Mr. and Mrs. Shomo attended classes together at schools in Stowe, went to the same church and Sunday school and literally grew up together.

The formerly active churchwoman attended services for the last time at St. Paul's Reformed church the Sunday after her anniversary celebration, Oct. 26.

ON OCT. 30 she suffered a severe heart attack which kept her in a Memorial hospital bed until Nov. 11. At home after she was discharged from the hospital, she was confined to her bed.

Her condition improved to the point where she was told by her family physician that she could walk about the house. That was Nov. 11. Before she had the opportunity to get out of bed, she was stricken with another heart attack, more serious than the one on Oct. 30.

Immediately, Mrs. Shomo's condition became critical. Her right side became paralyzed. She hovered between life and death for a few days and just when it seemed as though she might have had a chance to recover, her kidneys ceased to function properly.

With her constantly until her death were her three daughters Mrs. Marguerite Seyler, Mrs. Mildred Ludwig and Mrs. Carmelita Bush, all of Stowe, and Mrs. Ella Balthaser, a sister, also of Stowe.

Mrs. Seyler said her mother's mind was alert until the instant she died. "She understood everything we said although she couldn't talk clearly to us. She wanted to talk so much and when she tried she would have to use gestures to make us understand," Mrs. Seyler said. "She died very peacefully."

MRS. SHOMO was born in Stowe, the daughter of the late John W. and Anna (Engle) Bechtel. She lived there all her life except for five years when she and her husband moved to Sharon where her husband worked in a steel mill.

In Stowe she acquired a reputation for being on hand whenever anyone needed her. Children who loved her called her Aunt Tillie, and as her children grew up they continued the affectionate nickname which remained with her until she died.

Besides her own charitable activities and her work with the church, she was a member of the West End Fire company ladies' auxiliary.

She is survived by, in addition to her widower at home, three daughters, Marguerite, wife of Raymond Seyler, 105 West Walnut street, Stowe; Mildred, wife of Clyde Ludwig, 16 Glasgow street, Stowe; Carmelita, wife of Russell Bush, 3 Glasgow street, Stowe; two sons, Sanford Shomo, Reading, and Leroy Shomo, at home; 12 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Also surviving her are the following brothers and sisters: Ella, wife of Edwin Balthaser, 617 East Vine street, Stowe; Lilly, wife of Charles Hepford, Ridley Park; Mrs. Gertrude Bewley, 316 East Vine street, Stowe; Ida, wife of Howard Dillman, Fox Chase; Florence, wife of Joseph Reiter, 323 Glasgow street, Stowe; Mrs. Mayme Linsinbiger, 419 Glasgow street, Stowe; Warren Bechtel, 23 Berks street, Stowe, and William Bechtel, 939 Glasgow street, Stowe.

Services will be held from her home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock and further services will be held at St. Paul's Reformed church, Stowe, immediately after. The Rev. Paul C. Scheirer, pastor of the church, will officiate at the services.

Interment will be made in Mt. Zion cemetery.
